Wilbur Urged To Grant Full Hearing To Oil Industry

MEETING TO BE HELD IN LATE MARCH

Conference in Washington Expected to Stabilize Output of Petroleum
MAY ADOPT PROGRAM
Chances of Obtaining An Agreement on Import of Crude Oil Said Good

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(UP)—Secretary of Interior Wilbur was asked today to grant a "full hearing" to the oil states advisory committee.

The purpose of the meeting, which will be called in Washington March 30, would be to "develop plans to stabilize the petroleum industry." The request was contained in a telegram from C. C. Murray, chairman of the oil states advisory committee.

Secretary Wilbur said that he could not say definitely whether the conference to adopt a state compact form of domestic oil conservation and production.

Meanwhile, Secretary Wilbur was awaiting word as to the outcome of negotiations which Secretary of Commerce Lamont has been carrying out with Standard of Indiana, attempting to bring that company in to a voluntary compact limiting petroleum imports.

'BLUEBEARD' WILLS ESTATE TO CHARITY

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., March 16.—(UP)—James P. "Bluebeard" Watson, serving a life sentence for murdering 10 wives, called an attorney today to make out a will leaving his estate to charity.

JAMES ASWELL OF LOUISIANA ANSWERS CALL

Democratic Solon in Congress for 20 Years Passes Today

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(UP)—Representative James Benjamin Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana, member of the house agricultural committee, died at 2:15 a. m. today of heart trouble at his apartment here.

Aswell had been a member of all congresses since 1911. As senior Democrat on the agriculture committee, he led the fight in the house for the inclusion of food loans in the drought relief bill passed at the last session.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS DIE AS PLANE FALLS

PORTERVILLE, Calif., March 16.—(UP)—Two high school boys were burned to death near here yesterday afternoon when a borrowed plane stalled and crashed.

The dead: Channing Reeves, 17, son of E. A. Reeves, Terra Bella. Paul Betts, 16, son of Mrs. Elsie P. Betts, Porterville.

Young Reeves, holder of a private pilot's license, was at the controls of a small monoplane borrowed from Walter Johnson, Porterville airport superintendent when the motor stalled while making a climbing turn at 400 to 500 feet altitude.

Air Derby Winner Plans World Trip In 10 Days' Time

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 16.—(UP)—Wiley Post, winner of the 1930 Los Angeles to Chicago Air derby, said today he is planning to attempt to fly around the world in 10 days next June.

SEVENTEEN PERSONS KILLED IN CALIFORNIA OVER SUNDAY

HOOVER LEAVES THIS WEEK FOR 10 DAY VOYAGE

President to Pay Visit to Porto Rico and Virgin Islands

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(UP)—Activity of the White House, the navy department and aboard the reconditioned battleship Arizona was speeded up today to permit the earliest possible start by President Hoover on his trip to Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands, announced over the week-end.

The time of departure may be made known today. The president probably will sail from Norfolk Wednesday or Thursday depending upon how soon accommodations can be made ready.

Mrs. Hoover has decided not to make the voyage, and instead will visit her son, Herbert, Jr., who is ill in Asheville, N. C. In the president's party will be Secretary of War Hurley, Secretary of the Interior Wilbur and Lawrence Ritchey, the president's secretary.

Accommodations aboard the battleship will be limited, the normally cramped space being further restricted by the fact that as she will be on a trial run, a full complement of officers and men must be carried. Some of the unofficial members of the party probably will sleep in hammocks.

In making this trip, the president is rejecting numerous invitations to spend a genuine vacation in some expensive southern resort. It is understood he does not feel justified in taking in some rich man's playground while there is widespread suffering in the country.

The 10-day West Indian tour is a piece with this attitude. Both Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands have suffered heavily physically and economically in recent years. Porto Rico, of which Theodore Roosevelt is governor, is under the jurisdiction of the war department. The Virgin Islands recently came under the administration of the interior department, having been controlled previously by the navy. This accounts for the presence of Hurley and Wilbur on the trip.

PAROLES ORDERED FOR 5 PRISONERS

SACRAMENTO, March 16.—(UP)—Five prisoners were ordered paroled immediately and 17 given future date paroles, at the week-end meeting of the state board of prison directors at Folsom today. Those paroled immediately were: Arthur Reid, Los Angeles; Stewart Payne, San Diego; William C. Crowley, Marin county; Lewis Dixon and John Davis, Sacramento.

Of a total of 49 cases considered, 14 parole petitions were denied, 11 postponed and two given credit allowances for violation of parole.

JAPANESE SHOOT SOVIET COUNSELOR

TOKIO, March 16.—(UP)—Nobukatsu Sato surrendered voluntarily to police tonight and confessed that he had shot and seriously wounded Commercial Counselor Anikeff of the Soviet embassy.

Sato, who had lived in Russia for 20 years and was once connected with the fisheries in which Japanese participate off the Siberian coast, said he shot Anikeff because the Russian had once defrauded him. He said the attack was not connected with a Japanese-Soviet fisheries controversy, despite his former connections.

Bandit Victim Won't Tell On Boy Friend

CHICAGO, March 16.—(UP)—Webster defines chivalry as something distinctly applicable to knights, gallant warriors and brave gentlemen—but Webster didn't know Miss Dorothy De Riemer or he might not have been so specific.

Miss De Riemer reported to police she had been held up while sitting in a parked automobile with a "young gentleman friend." Her diamond ring, worth $450, and her wrist watch, valued at $50, were taken.

"And who was the boy with you?" asked the police sergeant.

"I won't tell," answered Miss De Riemer. "He was just an innocent witness. I can not allow his name to be involved."

SECRETARY TO HOOVER NAMED THIS MORNING

Boston Newspaperman Will Succeed Geo. Akerson, Reports Declare

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(UP)—Theodore Joslin, Washington correspondent of the Boston Transcript, will be appointed secretary to President Hoover, it was announced at the White House today.

Joslin replaces former Secretary George Akerson, who resigned six weeks ago to take an executive post with a motion picture corporation.

Joslin has been a Washington correspondent of the Transcript for a number of years.

Joslin probably will take over his new office soon after the president returns from his 10-day trip to Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Announcement of the selection was made by Walter Newton, political secretary to the president. The appointment will complete Mr. Hoover's corps of secretaries, the third being Lawrence Rickey.

The Boston newspaperman is 41 years old. He was born in Leominster, Mass. His newspaper career includes service with the Associated Press from 1908 to 1913, and in Boston for the Transcript from 1913 to 1925. Since 1925 he has been political correspondent in Washington.

Six Men Escape Death As Flames Sweep Oil Derrick

LONG BEACH, March 16.—(UP)—Six men were imperiled and nearby oil wells were threatened early today when fire broke out in a mud pit of a Cherokee Oil company well. The blaze spread to the derrick and caused several gas explosions.

One derrick was ripped from the ground by an explosion and a storage tank was demolished before Long Beach firemen got the flames under control.

Operators in the Signal Hill oil field helped the firemen subdue the blaze. Six men just escaped being crushed to death by a falling derrick. Hearing the explosion they retreated rapidly. The derrick missed them by a margin of a few feet.

COURT REFUSES RULING

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(UP)—The supreme court today refused to rule upon the status of the famous Nassak diamond as an "artistic antique."

URGE BUILDING OF HOOVER DAM WITHOUT DELAY

Metropolitan Water District Announces Supply Diminishing Fast

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—(UP)—In urging immediate construction of an aqueduct to the site of the Boulder river dam, the Metropolitan water district announced today that Southern California's water supply was being rapidly depleted by the use of 170,000,000 gallons more water daily than is being replaced in the reservoirs.

The overdraft of 170,000,000 gallons is being taken from underground water reserves that have accumulated over a period of thousands of years. When this supply is exhausted salt water will flow into the gravel beds cutting off this source.

Of the 9,000,000,000 gallons of water which is daily running into the sea from the Colorado, one-ninth will be made available to Southern California cities by the district's aqueduct when the dam at Boulder is completed, the statement said.

Owing to the fact that it will take nine or ten years to construct the aqueduct the Metropolitan Water district is urging immediate commencement of work.

In the meantime Southern California cities were advised by the board of directors to develop local water sources to their fullest extent.

"By complete development of all remaining water in Owens valley and the Mono basin, Los Angeles is preparing to provide itself with an adequate supply until Colorado river water can be brought in," the statement concluded.

HUMAN VOICE IS RECORDED ON WIRE

DALLAS, Tex., March 16.—(UP)—Forty physicians, newspapermen and radio experts marveled today at the first public demonstration of a device for the recording of the human voice on a tiny wire.

The invention has been perfected by Dr. Harold Warwick, Fort Worth eye and ear specialist, after 18 years of effort. His demonstration was given a select audience at the Dallas Little theater.

With the invention, Warwick hopes to make available at will for the ears of the blind, books, plays, courses of study and other written words too long for reproduction by ordinary phonograph records. Any number of "wire" records can be made at the same time, he says, and a pound of the No. 30 special steel wire can absorb and retain indefinitely a conversation lasting an hour and a quarter.

NEGRO BOY CRASHES WHITE HOUSE GATE

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(UP)—A five-year old Negro boy is being groomed as the successor to One-Eyed Connelly, gate crasher extraordinaire.

Connelly never crashed the White House to the best of the attendants' knowledge—but yesterday Herbert Jefferson, small, dusky and a born explorer, did just that.

Herbert spent some little time inspecting the spacious grounds with the calm eye of a connoisseur, then strolled through the main entrance of the White House to see what was inside. He was busy finding out when the White House police caught up with him.

Autos Cause Of At Least Eight Dead

Six Lose Lives By Drowning in Various Parts of This State

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—(UP)—Increased by the seasonal toll of drownings, violent deaths in California over the week-end climbed to the high total of 17.

In various parts of the state six persons were drowned.

Automobile accidents contributed the customary majority, eight losing their lives in traffic crashes.

Rita Doblin, 16, was killed in an auto crash in Oakland.

Donald McKee, 51, San Francisco, was killed in an auto crash near Woodland.

J. T. Frazer was killed by auto near Manteca.

In San Francisco, Thomas Carroll, 52, was run down by an auto.

Albert Mathews, 12, was believed drowned in the surf.

Frank De Martini, 22, was drowned near Stockton.

Channing Reeves, 17, and Paul Betts, 16, were burned to death when an airplane stalled and crashed at Porterville.

Mrs. Anna Mirman, 55, was killed in a collision at Los Angeles.

Sidney White, 37, was killed when an auto hit his truck at Los Angeles.

Toy Man Top, 35, Chinese, was killed in a jump from a burning building at Sacramento.

Thomas J. Pearce, 26, San Francisco business man, was killed in an auto crash at Woodland.

Charles Johnson, 40, and Sam Lind, 45, laborers, were drowned near Stockton when they jumped from their burning houseboat.

Howard Johnson, 19, Stockton, was drowned.

CHARACTER ACTOR CLAIMED BY DEATH

HOLLYWOOD, March 16.—(UP)—James Neill, 70, one of Hollywood's most widely known character actors, died in his Glendale home last night after a short illness. Neill was on the stage for 25 years prior to entering motion pictures 20 years ago.

He was the husband of Edythe Chapman, herself well known in films. He played the part of the Apostle James in "King of Kings" and Aaron in "The Ten Commandments."

WILL ROGERS says:

BEVERLY HILLS, March 16.—[To the Editor of The Register:] When you read about thousands of people clamoring to see their hero, you wonder if it's Mahatma Gandhi or Charley Chaplin. The day of the big man (physically) has passed. Here is these two little figures the most popular two men in the world today, Mahatma in his breech clout and Charley in his derby, both of 'em too smart to let the King Knight 'em. Gandhi is trying to save India and Charley will do what he can for Hollywood.

Hoover has found out where there was no Senators going for their vacation and he is going there, Porto Rico. Yours, WILL ROGERS.

LOCAL SCHOOL PAPER VICTOR IN SOUTHLAND

Wins Sweepstakes Prize As Best High School Paper
in Contest

WINNING the sweepstakes prize for publishing the best all-around high school newspaper in Southern California, staff members of the Santa Ana high school "Generator" were signally honored Saturday at the ninth annual Newspaper day at the University of Southern California.

The Crombie Allen prize is the highest award any school paper can achieve and its presentation is the feature of the journalistic activities on Newspaper day. The Generator scored 124 points out of a possible 150 and was judged on makeup balance, typography, attractiveness, readability, press work, proper news emphasis, prominence of main stories on the stage, originality, newspaper style and local appeal.

San Diego and South Pasadena tied for second place with 122 points and were awarded the Daily Trojan plaques. "The Russ" from San Diego winning the Class A award for schools of over 1000 enrollment and "The Tiger" from South Pasadena taking Class B award for schools under 1000. This is the second time in two years that The Generator has won first prize, a similar plaque being earned in 1929 while John "Sky" Dunlap was editor.

Miss Lillian Hurwitz, editor-in-chief, accepted the Allen award at the noon luncheon of the convention Saturday. She was accompanied to the newspaper convocation by Edgar M. Flowers, journalism adviser, Bill Gibbs, Generator sports editor, Flora Park, Katherine Robbins and Bernice Rankin, reporters; Richard Robbins, editor-in-chief of the junior college paper, "El Don" and John "Sky" Dunlap, former editor of "The Generator" and "El Don."

Following registration in the morning, the delegates from high school, junior college and professional newspapers, gathered in Bovey auditorium for the first session. Instructive talks were given by Chester G. Hanson, special assignment reporter of a Los Angeles morning newspaper; Miss Myra Nye, club editor of the same publication, and Carroll H. Smith, publisher of La Mesa Scout near San Diego.

POLICE GUARD KING OF SPAIN IN LONDON

LONDON, March 15.—(UP)—King Alfonso of Spain, who arrived last night apparently in unusually good health and smiling broadly despite the recent threats to this throne, was the object of extraordinary police precautions today.

Two inspectors, several sergeants and 30 uniformed police officers assembled in the luggage room and dozens of plain clothes detectives mingled with the crowd at Victoria station upon the arrival of the king, who came here to visit his mother-in-law, Princess Beatrice, who is ill.

Scores Are Believed Floating Ice Cakes Today
Off St. John's Coast

ST. JOHNS, N. F., March 16.—(UP)—The sealing steamer Viking was torn apart by an explosion Saturday night off Horse Island, on the northeastern coast of Newfoundland, advices received here said today.

Captain Abraham Kean Jr. and approximately 140 men, including Varick Frissell, New York explorer, were aboard. Many of the crew were killed by the explosion.

Half of the crew was unaccounted for at noon today and many of them were presumed to be adrift on floating ice cakes. Others were drowned in the scramble to get off the sinking ship. The origin of the blast was not known, but was attributed to the explosion of a boiler.

Several maimed bodies were brought ashore at Horse Island today, their condition bearing witness to the terrific force of the explosion.

Menger advices said residents of Horse Island heard the explosion and saw the ship in flames. They also reported seeing drift ice with human figures clinging to it.

In addition to Frissell, who has been working on motion pictures of sealing in the north, Harry Sargeant and R. Penrod of New York were also believed to have been aboard.

It off White bay in northern Newfoundland, just north of Cape St. John and about 225 miles northwest of St. John's.

LAWYERS PREPARE PANTAGES' DEFENSE

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—(UP)—Plans for the defense of Alexander Pantages, millionaire showman, accused in connection with offenses against minor girls, have been completed, his attorneys announced today.

When Pantages appears in court in San Diego April 13, represented by Jerry Geisler, W. L. Gilbert and Earle M. Daniels, he will be prepared to show his innocence, Geisler said.

Pantages, with Jesse Shreve and John P. Mills, his former business associates in a San Diego real estate venture, was accused of conspiracy to violate the juvenile court laws as a result of stories told by Lydia Nitto, alias Alice Blake, 16, and Helen Livingston, 17.

HUNGRY FISHERMEN ATTACK SHIP CREW

HONG KONG, March 16.—(UP)—Hungry fishermen and not pirates were responsible for a disturbance aboard the stranded Norwegian steamer Roseville in the Straits of Formosa, members of the crew said on their arrival here today.

The crew men said that after their vessel stranded in a dense fog, they succeeded in throwing a line ashore, which was made fast to some rocks by fishermen. Some little trouble occurred, they said, because the fishermen wanted to help themselves to the crew's provisions, possibly as a reward for their services. It was necessary to fire revolvers into the air to frighten them away.

ACCUSED OF MURDER

SACRAMENTO, March 16.—(UP)—Raymond C. West, hunted since Saturday on charge of shooting and robbing Jean Burt, Sacramento laundry proprietor, was under arrest by police for murder today.

Burt, who was shot through the stomach, died of his injuries at the Sisters' hospital today.

TATTERED OLD CANVAS MAY BE ART TREASURE

By RICHARD RANDOLPH
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

DENVER, March 16.—A dull and age-worn painting on a tattered piece of canvas is being restored to a semblance of its original form and color in a Denver home in the belief that it may be a product of the brush of Bartholomeo Esteban Murillo, noted Spanish painter of the seventeenth century.

The painting, a representation of the birth of St. John in the desert, was purchased by Mrs. Clude Berryman of Denver from an impoverished French-Syrian family in Cairo, Egypt, which had it in its possession for generations.

The picture depicts a scene wherein three women are seated and kneeling before an infant, with the mother and a servant in the background.

The picture was first seen by Mrs. Berryman in the home of Bernard Hamame, a wealthy French Syrian, 20 years ago in Palestine. Hamame's family had lived in the Holy Lands since the crusades.

The result was that the picture was shipped here.

"It was from the Hamame family," Mrs. Berryman said, "that my father, Frederick G. Bonfils, obtained a painting of the director general of the Monastery of the Holy Saviors in Jerusalem. This old painting was restored and now hangs in the Bonfils' home."

No estimate has been placed on the value of the painting. A genuine Murillo painting would be worth thousands of dollars. One of the best known of his works, "The Immaculate Conception," was bought for $17,000 by the French government. It now hangs in the Louvre in Paris.

Arrest Follows Putnam Release

Earl Putnam, charged with grand theft, in connection with the theft of an automobile owned by Emma McCordia, of Santa Ana, was given his freedom at the conclusion of his preliminary examination. Justice Kenneth Morrison's court today. The case was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Evidence brought out in the court showed that Putnam previously had driven the car with permission and in this case he took it without the owner's specific consent.

Following the trial, Putnam was re-arrested, however, and is being held in jail today on a check charge in connection with the McCordia check case.

Costa Mesa Girls Launch 4-H Club

The "Costa Mesa Mermals" is the official name adopted by members of the Costa Mesa girls' 4-H club when they met at the home of Mrs. L. P. Ralnes in Costa Mesa Saturday.

Officers were elected at the meeting.

SEEK TO TRANSFER SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Petition for removal of the damage action against the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad filed by Ruth Ogburn, in which damages of $50,000.20 are asked, was filed in superior court today, seeking to take the matter from the Orange county courts to the United States district court.

The suit was filed on February 7, 1928, after a collision at the Seventeenth street crossing of the railroad on August 29, 1927. The action was thrown out of the Orange county courts at the time of the trial on a motion for non-suit made by the defendants, but a recent opinion of the fourth district appellate court reversed the decision of the Orange county court in the matter and reopen the case.

The petition for removal to the district court is made on the ground that the defendant is a resident of Kansas, while the plaintiff is a resident of California and the amount involved is in excess of $500. Bond of $1000 was filed with the petition to cover costs in event the district court ruled it was not a matter to come before it.

CHICAGO Bd. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, March 16.—(UP)—Over-sold toward the last, wheat rose sharply as shorts covered on the Board of Trade today. Shorts were active in corn, also, and both grains finished with good gains. Wheat had been heavy and dull throughout the session on bearish statistics and favorable weather. The increase in the visible supply was smaller than had been looked for and buying by local bear instigated general purchasing. Corn ruled firm on spreading with wheat. An increase in the visible was disappointing, but the rally in wheat encouraged buying. Oats were unsettled in a drab trade but closed higher.

At the close old wheat was unchanged, new wheat was ¼¢ higher, corn was ½¢ to 1¼¢ higher and oats were ¼¢ to ½¢ higher. Provisions were steady to around 20 points higher.

Way to Get At a Cold's Through the Bowels

As soon as you catch cold, the pores close; perspiration is checked. Gases and waste can't escape through the skin. That's why your doctor's first advice in case of colds is a mild laxative like Cascarets. Medical authorities agree it actually strengthens bowel muscles. You get cascara in its most pleasant form in candy Cascarets.

Remember this when you catch cold; whenever breath is bad; tongue coated; or you're headachy, bilious, constipated.

Why react to harsher things when Cascarets activate the bowels so quickly, so harmlessly and pleasantly—and cost only a dime?—Adv.

MIDWAY CITY

MIDWAY CITY, March 16.—C. Conway, who resided in Midway City for several months a few years ago when employed in the Huntington Beach oil field, was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller recently. Mr. Conway occupied Mr. Miller's house on Adams street at the time of his residence here. The visitor returned last week from India, where he spent the past three years in the oil fields, and relates interesting experiences in connection with his work there. When Mr. Conway first went to India, there were about 50 Americans in the field, but work has slackened there, as elsewhere in the fields, the states, and there were only about a half dozen white men left when he came away.

Mrs. M. Benefield, of Huntington Park, was entertained as a luncheon guest Thursday by Mrs. J. N. James.

A letter received from Sterling Price, who with a party flew into Washington and Oregon last week, tells of continual rainy weather which has delayed their return.

The two younger children of Mr. and Mrs. Whitson are ill at their home with measles.

Billy Woods and Carl Enoch both have measles now. Bobby Enoch and Annabelle Woods, who have been ill, are convalescing.

Twelve tables of bridge and "100" entertained at the monthly card party of the Midway City Woman's club. Mrs. B. L. Kirkham, Mrs. A. E. Holly and Mrs. William Schmidt, members of the ways and means committee, were hostesses. Prizes in "500" went to Mrs. Robert Keller, first; Mrs. Donald Larter, second; Mr. Floyd, first for men, and Mr. Kittel, second. In bridge, Mrs. Ruth Harlow won first for women and Mrs. Hurst, second, while Mr. Seaman won men's first and Mr. Lutz, second.

Apple pie and coffee were served at the refreshment hour by the hostesses. At the next card party the newly appointed committee, Mrs. J. L. Beaver, Mrs. J. L. Esser and Mrs. Ray Schureman, will be the hostesses.

Mrs. Russell L. Johnson spent two days in Arcadia as the guest of her mother.

SEVEN OUT OF TEN

Pain or Suffering may be temporarily removed by the use of drugs, but to do so without removing the cause is but to invite the recurrence in a more intense form and to permit the trouble itself to assume proportions that may prove dangerous to life itself and be quite beyond the hope of help.

Seven out of ten cases of sickness are caused directly or indirectly by pinched nerves which have been robbed of their power to distribute that vital nerve force to the organs or organs affected. For many years we have successfully administered to countless sick people in Santa Ana and throughout the district....we have assisted many who had been given up by other health specialists....we have aided those suffering with practically every known human ailment.

We do not attribute our remarkable results to any "magic" and "wonders" or any "cure-all" properties possessed by ourselves. We attribute this success, which in many cases has surpassed our own hopes, to the fact that every patient coming to us receives a most scientific examination in our honest endeavor to ascertain the exact cause of the trouble and the exact location and extent of that cause. Therefore as a safeguard against guesswork we have always used the X-Ray, and now as a still further aid we resort to a Nerve Reading in every instance. We do not, however, expect you to believe everything you read, but invite you to come and accept our competent examination which is

and which includes besides the X-Ray and Nerve-Reading, Blood Pressure, Laboratory Tests, Urinalysis and Barium Stomach or Colon Tracing as your case may indicate. Having found the cause, if your case is one for Chiropractic it is generally a simple matter to remove the cause after which Nature herself effects the "cure." Should yours not be a case for Chiropractic we will gladly say so, but in either case you will receive this examination and report without the slightest cost or obligation.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

There is resident within your being great healing power for bodily ills and for mental and spiritual anguish; but it must be evoked; it does not function automatically nor by itself. You are right in feeling that a child of God should be able to triumph over the weakness and depression and doubt and fear which so easily overwhelm most people, and you are on the path which leads to victory the moment you put your hand in His. Evidently all of man's capacities are planned for use in co-operation and communion with the Maker. Bravely attempting to win in your own strength is asking of yourself what God never promised that you should be able to do.

Draw near to Him. Trust Him. Seek His guidance and power and you become unquerable.

WILSON—On March 14, Georgia Lea Wilson, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wilson of Orange avenue, Costa Mesa. Private services were held at the Grooms and Riesenberg chapel in Costa Mesa today with interment in Central Memorial park.

McILVAIN—March 16, 1931, in Monterey Park, James Franklin McIlvain, age 86 years. He is survived by two sons, Harry D. of Santa Ana, and Arthur B. McIlvain of Los Angeles, and a half-sister, Mrs. Stanley, of Los Angeles. A later by his town, 116 West Seventeenth.

KESEMANN—At his home, 1322 North Durant street, March 16, 1931, William Kesemann, aged 67 years. Husband of Laura Kesemann, Santa Ana. He was the father of Mrs. J. O. Pyle, Smelter; Mrs. John Kettler, Smelter; Mrs. Frank Pickel, 710 So. Van Ness st., and William Kesemann Jr., Ventura, Calif. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Smith and Tuthill chapel.

PIERCE—Mrs. Mabel Elizabeth Pierce, aged 44 years, wife of Franklin O. Pierce of El Toro, passed away, March 14, 1931. Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Franklin Pierce Jr. and daughter, Mary Pierce. Services were held this afternoon from the Winbiger Funeral home, Rev. Ernest Beam, pastor of the Church of Christ of Long Beach officiating. Interment in Long Beach cemetery.

MILLER—In Santa Ana, March 14, 1931, Mrs. Mary A. Miller, aged 76 years, of 802 East 9th street, widow of Samuel T. Miller, who died March 12. She is survived by one son, Guy Miller, of Imperial Valley; two daughters, Mrs. Emma Webster, of Bell, Calif., and Mrs. W. D. Anderson, of Santa Ana; a grandson, J. Edwin Decker of this city and granddaughter, Mrs. Audra Gallagher of Oakland. Joint services for both Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be held from the Winbiger Funeral home, 609 North Main street, at a day and hour to be announced later.

RESIDENT HERE FOR 40 YEARS ANSWERS CALL

William Kesemann, 67, one of the county's pioneers, died unexpectedly this morning after a brief illness. He passed away at his home at 1322 Durant street, where he had lived for the past 13 years.

He came to Orange county 40 years ago and located on a ranch near Smelter, where he and G. E. Smeltzer pioneered the growing of celery in this district. He has been very active in county activities, especially in working out drainage systems for the western part of the county.

He was a member of the Masonic Blue lodge, the Masonic Scottish Rites lodge, Knights Templars, and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Smith and Tuthill funeral chapel. The Masonic lodge will put on the services and the Rev. George A. Warner will officiate. Interment will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

Mr. Kesemann is survived by his wife, Laura Kesemann, Santa Ana; three daughters, Mrs. J. O. Pyle, of Smelter; Mrs. John Kettler, of Smelter, and Mrs. Frank Pickel, of Santa Ana; and one son, William Kesemann Jr., of Ventura.

NAPONELLI ASKS FOR PROBATION

Two criminal matters came before Judge H. G. Ames in superior court today, resulting in pleas for probation being entered by both defendants.

Eduardo Naponelli, convicted by a jury on a charge of owning and operating a still, came before the court on a hearing on a motion for a new trial. The motion for a new trial was withdrawn and oral application for probation was made. Naponelli will appear before the court on March 20 in connection with the hearing on probation.

A plea of guilty to burglary in the second degree was entered by Ignacio Gonzales in his answer to arraignment. He also entered application for probation and the court set March 27 as the time for the hearing. The information filed by the office of District Attorney Sam L. Collins charged Gonzales with breaking into a service station operated by J. Dobyns on December 22, 1930, with intent to commit the crime of theft.

Eat Everything without Fear of Indigestion

Are there lots of foods you can't eat—for fear of gas, bloating, pains in the stomach and bowels? Do you have to pass up favorite dishes—while the rest enjoy them? That's a sign you need Tanlac! For more than 10 years Tanlac has restored to vigorous health thousands who denied themselves their favorite foods just as you have to.

Mrs. Arvina Bowers, of 1239 Jackson St., Topeka, Kas., says: "Five years I was troubled with gas, bloating and dizzy spells. But Tanlac toned up my whole system and increased my weight 10 lbs."

If you suffer from indigestion, gas, dizziness, headaches, constipation or torpid liver—give Tanlac a chance to help you! The first bottle often brings the needed relief.

Tanlac is a good, pure medicine, made of roots, barks, and herbs that are recognized by the United States Pharmacopoeia. Get it from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Calvin Coolidge Says

By CALVIN COOLIDGE
NORTHAMPTON, Mass., March 16.—One development after another emphasizes the growing self sufficiency of Canada. At the opening of parliament when the acting chief justice, Lyman P. Duff, represented King George in the absence of the new governor general, the Earl of Bessborough, the speech from the throne was delivered for the first time by a Canadian.

The spectacle must have touched the pride of the people of the flourishing and re-energized Dominion. It was a recognition of their increasing importance in the empire. A proposal has been made to make a governor general who is a Canadian citizen. No doubt that will come. It would be natural for a country of 10,000,000 people with a per capita wealth above that of the United States to supply its own contact with the crown.

Politically Canada looks to England. Economically she looks to us. We have invested there about one ninth of her national wealth while England has about one fourteenth. Her trade with us is three times larger than her trade with the United Kingdom. Her own foreign investments are large. She has financial interests all over the western hemisphere. Because we represent the same economic aims we rejoice in the success of Canada.

Court Notes

W. D. Horton, who has entered a plea of not guilty to charges of assault with a deadly weapon and attempt to commit robbery as a result of his alleged attack on George M. Bay with an iron bar on Nov. 5, 1929, will be tried on April 1. His answer to arraignment was entered before Judge H. G. Ames.

Motion for a new trial of the case of Clarence E. Purdie against D. M. Pettit, which when tried before a jury in the court of Judge James L. Allen several weeks ago resulted in a judgment of the exact amount sought in the complaint—$11,330—has been denied by Judge Allen. Attorneys for the defendant made the motion on the grounds that there was contributory negligence.

A temporary injunction has been granted by Judge H. G. Ames in connection with the injunction suit brought against M. Pitts et al, by the General Petroleum Corporation of California. The oil concern asked that the defendant be enjoined from displaying any advertising or handling any gasoline other than their own, as provided in terms of a lease for a service station.

Maurice Hemphill, charged with burglary, has entered a plea of guilty to the charge and filed an application with the court for probation. Judge H. G. Ames set March 27 as the date for the hearing on probation. Hemphill, it is alleged, broke into the store of Hockaday, Harlow and Phillips, on February 19, with burglarious intent.

Wahlberg To Give Porterville Talk

Harold Wahlberg, county farm advisor, will leave for Porterville tomorrow to speak at a series of citrus meetings to be held there under the auspices of the University of California. He also will speak at several surrounding towns during the trip.

He will be in Porterville for three days and then intends to leave for the University of California at Berkeley, where he will consult with agricultural economic specialists on cost production studies the county office has been making.

WILLARD STORE PLANS OPENING ON WEDNESDAY

Official opening of the Willard store, previously Van Antwerp's, at the corner of Sycamore and Fourth streets, will be held on Wednesday, it was announced today. A change of ownership sale has been in progress ever since March 7, the day Willard took over the business.

H. E. Willard, who purchased the Van Antwerp store, has had over 25 years of experience in the mercantile business, it was learned today. After being associated with the F. C. Nash company of Pasadena, he served as buyer for the past six years for the Phelps Dodge Mercantile company, of Arizona and New Mexico. The company operated a chain of eight stores, with both wholesale and retail branches. A great deal of his time has been spent in both eastern and western territory, where he has been actively engaged in the mercantile business. Willard declared that he always has wanted to live in Santa Ana because he has considered it the best city in a county which ranks first in a state where nearly every condition is ideal. He believes strongly in the future of Santa Ana and intends to take an active part in civic affairs.

Local Briefs

A group of poultry raisers from all over the county will meet at 7:30 p. m. today in the farm advisor's office at 606 North Main street to take part in a series of meetings to be held to discuss the advancement of poultry raising. It was announced today by M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, who will be in charge of the instruction work. Anyone interested is invited to attend the meeting.

Louis Martello Jr., 21, of Santa Ana, and Lettie Jordan, 19, of Los Angeles, have applied for a marriage license in San Bernardino.

Bernard Miller, 21, and Marie Brown, 21, both of Anaheim, have applied for a marriage license in Riverside.

The Olive Grammar School P.-T. A. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school, when Dr. L. Bramwell will be the speaker. It was announced this morning.

FRIGIDAIRE GIVES SERVICE GUARANTEE

A three-year complete service guarantee covering both the mechanism and the cabinet will apply to the 1931 Frigidaire advanced line of household electric refrigerators, P. G. Wallace of the F. P. Nickey Hardware company, local Frigidaire dealers, said today.

"This radically new dual pledge of owner satisfaction," he said, "is the broadest in the history of the Frigidaire corporation. It has been adopted because of the experience with the current models and the fact that all Frigidaire household porcelains on steel. Back of it stands the reputation and resources of General Motors corporation, the world's largest manufacturer of fine mechanical products."

Speaking of the advanced Frigidaire, Wallace said: "The new line is the result of the most intensive and devoted effort the Frigidaire factory ever put into a product."

"Such features as lower operating cost, faster freezing of ice cubes, more pounds of ice per freezing, larger shelf area and greater power distinguish the new models. In addition there is an acid-resisting interior of porcelain the result of years of intensive research."

"Throughout the mechanical unit and the cabinet, Frigidaire has introduced time-proven features that make the new models distinct and important contributions to electric refrigeration. Recent dealer meetings held throughout the country indicate a decided upturn in Frigidaire business during the coming months."

Attend Meeting Of Dairy Group

W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, and R. D. Flaherty, secretary of the Orange County Farm bureau, attended a regional meeting of the Southern Counties Dairymen's association held in the Farm bureau office Saturday.

A new constitution and by-laws were adopted and laws affecting the dairy industry were discussed. J. J. Denny, of Cypress, state director of the association from Orange county, and F. H. Finney also attended the meeting.

WIDOW UNITED WITH HUSBAND IN DEATH HERE

Friends today were shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary A. Miller, 76, who died Saturday at the home of her grandson, Erwin Decker, 2215 Greenleaf street. Mrs. Miller was the widow of Samuel T. Miller, Orange county pioneer, who passed away only two days previous to the demise of Mrs. Miller. According to relatives the unexpected death of Mrs. Miller was due to shock sustained by the death of her husband.

She is survived by one son, Guy Miller, of Imperial Valley, two daughters, Mrs. Emma Webster of Bell, California, and Mrs. W. D. Anderson of Santa Ana; a grandson, Edwin Decker, of Santa Ana, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Audra Gallagher, of Oakland.

Joint services for both Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be held from the Winbiger Funeral home at a date to be announced later.

COLLEGE SERVICE CLUBS TO GATHER

Service clubs of the junior college have announced meetings for tonight in accordance with the scheduled meetings on the social calendar of the college.

Final preparations for the club tea which is to be held in the home of Miss Zena Leck at Laguna Beach will be made when Moavs meet in the home of Miss Jane Cunningham, 1208 North Van Ness street, at 7:30 p. m.

Warren Shutz will entertain Brotherhood of Bachelors in his home in Anaheim at 7:30 p. m. Following the business meeting members will adjourn to the home of Jack Dutton, a former member, who will give a party celebrating his recent marriage.

Initiation of pledges to the Juniors will take place at Corona del Mar at 7 p. m. and Los Gauchos are planning to meet in the home of Fred Davis, at 7:30 p. m.

Sisterhood of Spinsters will hold a formal initiation for pledges in the home of Miss Bernice Summers, 22335 North Park boulevard, at 7:30 p. m.

TWO JAILED AFTER FIGHT AT TALBERT

Two men are in the county jail and another is in the county hospital as the result of an asserted cutting scrape at Talbert last night, in which Arguilla Ortiz, Talbert man, was severely cut on the right arm and about the body.

J. L. Marron, 38, of San Diego and Joe Areyno, 32, of Delhi, were arrested by Sheriff's Officers Dean and Nickles and are being held in the county jail for investigation.

According to Deputy Sheriff Dean, Areyno was severely cut in a fight at Talbert three weeks ago by a man believed to have been Ortiz. He was freed from the hospital only a short time ago but during his stay in the hospital refused to name his assailant and no arrests were made at that time. Sheriff's officers are of the opinion, they said, that last night's fight was a sequel to the other fight in which Areyno was injured.

FUNERAL OF JAMES HEADLEE TUESDAY

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the C. W. Coffey funeral parlors in Orange, for James Emmett Headlee, 52, who passed away in that city Saturday. Interment is to be made in the Fairhaven cemetery and the members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Orange are to have charge of the service.

Mr. Headlee is survived by three sons, Guy E., of Benecia; Louis A., of San Diego; Joe L., of Orange; four daughters, Mrs. H. T. Persley, of Neleda, Kas.; Mrs. R. O. Dalton, of Santa Cruz; Miss Lois Headlee and Miss Doris Headlee, of Orange; one stepson, Jimmy Wallace; two brothers, Fred H. of Parsons, Kas.; Ernest, of Coffeyville, Kas.; two sisters, Mrs. Cora Rogers, and Mrs. Docia Walters, of Coffeyville, and five grandchildren.

The deceased had been a resident of Orange for the past nine years.

Merchants Will Attend Lectures

Twenty-nine merchants from Santa Ana will attend a course of studies in retail collections and credit to be given by the Retail Merchants' Credit association of Los Angeles. The classes will meet in the Exposition Hall on the fifth floor of the May company building.

The first meeting will be held tomorrow night and the merchants will gather at the Business Men's association office where they will leave in a body. Transportation has been arranged for those who desire it.

R. Earl Ruddy, secretary-manager of the Business Men's association, advises merchants that plan to attend that the doors of the building will open at 6:45 p. m. and will close at 7:15 p. m., and that admittance after that time will be impossible.

H. C. Blewett, 56, of 781 Bennett street, Long Beach, was lodged in the county jail early last night on a charge of possession of liquor. He was arrested by Constable Ames, of Brea, after the car he was driving was said to have figured in an accident. Blewett was found with a pint in his possession, it was reported. He later was released on bail.

EASIEST WAY TO BREAK UP A COLD

Millions Say of This Proved Way

Works Fast—Makes You Feel Like a New Person Before You Know It

If you want quick relief from a cold, go back to first principles and use something you know does the business—don't start "trying" a lot of fancy ideas or remedies. Even a "little" cold is too dangerous to take chances on.

Get Hill's Cascara Quinine. A scientific formula made to do ONE THING WELL: to knock a cold in a jiffy, not to cure a hundred different things.

Take two tablets every three hours. Drink lots of water between times—that's all. Soon those mean, aching pains in head and body begin to go; the cold breaks up; poisons leave your system. Almost before you know it, you feel like a new person.

If it doesn't do that, your money back. Get a box now. You'll be surprised at the speed with which it works. Costs only a few cents.

HILL'S Cascara Quinine Compound

rage at San Clemente, ending a search for the man which has been carried on by his friends and relatives since March 4, when he disappeared.

Walker apparently killed himself. Death was due to inhalation of poisonous monoxide gas fumes, generated from the exhaust pipe of his automobile, according to an investigation completed by the sheriff's office. The body was found lying in the back seat of the Walker automobile. Decomposition had set in, indicating from the state of the body that the man had been dead for several days, possibly from the time he was first reported missing to Los Angeles police on March 4.

The body was found by Police Commissioner Roy Strang, of San Clemente, in whose garage the Walker machine was found. The house and garage were empty. Strang having acquired the property some time ago. Saturday evening he was showing the house to relatives when he made the gruesome discovery. Strang was attracted to the garage by an odor. He claimed at the time, the doors of the garage were closed tight.

Herman Zabel, identification expert of the sheriff's office discovered that the ignition switch of the car had been left on and the battery had run down, indicating that the car had run for a number of hours.

An autopsy, performed by Dr. Elizabeth Tock, at the county hospital, yesterday revealed that death was due to inhalation of monoxide fumes, the sheriff's office reported. After the autopsy the body was moved to the Divel Funeral parlors at San Clemente, where Coroner Charles D. Brown said he would hold an inquest. He has not set the time for the inquisition.

First reports received in Santa Ana were to the effect that Walker had been murdered and his body left in the garage. A minute examination of the body failed to reveal any wounds whatsoever. Sheriff Logan Jackson reported, and as far as the sheriff's office is concerned, Walker's death was due to suicide, he intimated.

Friends and relatives of the man who came here shortly after the body was found, were unable to give any reason for suicide. They stated that Walker left home to go to San Dimas and to San Diego on March 4. When

ANOTHER CHANCE TO STUDY UNDER DR. GERTRUDE LAWS

Dr. Gertrude Laws has just closed a five-week course in the Lowell school for mothers. Over 40 women attended this series and have said they were delighted with the help they received in their problems as parents. A second five-week series of a similar nature will be given at the Roosevelt school beginning March 17, at 2 p. m. Any one is welcome to attend these lectures whether living in the Roosevelt district or not. The series at Roosevelt will be followed by a five-week series at the Wilson school. These schools have been chosen in order to make the work available to as many women as possible in the various sections of the town.

PROPOSE WATER DISTRICT IN THREE ARCHES REGION AFTER ADDRESS BY COL. S. H. FINLEY

Though offering no solution of the immediate problems confronting the districts not controlling their water supply, Col. Finley suggested that steps be taken to form a water district along the coast. This might be made a part of the Metropolitan district, he said, though he also suggested that the district could be formed under the same act as the Metropolitan district, which permits joining non-contiguous areas into a single district. He recommended joining the Metropolitan district in any event and of doing so at as early a date as possible. It would be between six and seven years before water from the Colorado river would be distributed, he said.

The executive committee of the association, consisting of Ben, Gilbert Wilson, secretary-treasurer of the association, and Eugene Schwarzwald, vice president, was entrusted with taking preliminary steps toward forming a water district with other communities along the shoreline. In this they will work with the Metropolitan district, according to instruction given by the meeting, and will, on the invitation of Col. Finley, be visitors at meetings of the Metropolitan Water board. The executive committee was also instructed to make arrangements for the hauling of water if this should become necessary.

Discussion as to the capacity of wells now supplying water showed a lack of confidence in water being supplied to the home owners in sufficient quantity. Officers of the association urged that as many as possible be present Wednesday at the real estate commission hearing to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. Schwarzwald was made a committee to see what had been done in Laguna Beach to eradicate signboards, looking to similar action in Three Arches.

E. M. Schofield, Clarence Gustlin and Mr. and Mrs. Wickes joined the association, bringing the membership to 67. It was reported. Among those present was Charles K. Edmunds, president of Pomona college, who has a home in the tract. S. P. Cox told of experiences in trying to procure water.

INSURANCE GROUP IN SESSION HERE

Fifty-five persons were present at the meeting of the Farmers Automobile Inter-Insurance exchange held in Ketter's cafe Friday night. It was a district session attended by representatives of Orange, Riverside, Imperial, San Diego, San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties.

E. Ray Moore, of Moore and Cheney, district managers for Orange county, was chairman. John Tyler, president, and F. C. Winter, sales manager, from the headquarters office at Los Angeles, were present at the banquet meeting. Information regarding the growth of the exchange was made public and it was pointed out that operations extend as far east as Kansas and from Canada to the Mexican border.

Agents were invited to attend the state sales convention in May, at which 1400 members of the field force are expected to be present. State Senator David Smith, of Utah, and L. G. McCubbin, manager of the Farmers Union Mutual Protective association, of Denver, Colo., will be seated on the board of governors at the annual meeting.

Grandson Of Mrs. Fannie Reeves Is Killed In Crash

Miss Carrie Seaton and Mrs. Fannie Reeves, 1009 French street, left early this morning for Terra Bella, Calif., where they were called by the death of the latter's grandson, Channing Reeves, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Reeves.

The death came yesterday evening at 5 o'clock as a result of an airplane crash near Porterville. It was just a few months ago that the youth received his pilot's license. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Reeves are well known in this city, where Mr. Reeves attended school.

HOLD FUNERAL OF MRS. MABEL PIERCE

Funeral services for Mrs. Mabel Elizabeth Pierce, 44, wife of Franklin C. Pierce, who has been agent of the Santa Fe railroad company in El Toro for the past 15 years, were held this afternoon from the Winbiger Funeral home. The Rev. Ernest Beam, pastor of the Church of Christ of Long Beach, officiated at the services. Interment was made in the Long Beach cemetery.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a son Franklin Pierce, Jr., and a daughter Mary Pierce.

Support Plan For Two Assemblymen In Orange County

No further protests against the so-called federal system of representation in the California legislature are to be expected from Los Angeles county, according to assurances given at a meeting of the economic council of Southern California in Los Angeles on Saturday. The council represents 10 Southern California districts co-operating with the Republican central committee of the theistic districts represented. The council agreed to support a claim for two assemblymen from Orange county. In order to bring about this change it was indicated that Los Angeles county will have to supply a portion of one assembly district, the major part of which would be in Orange county. Los Angeles county representatives at the meeting indicated a desire to co-operate with the agricultural regions in the matter of state and congressional representation, supporting a proposal that representation be made strictly upon a population basis.

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED
A judgment of Justice of the Peace Halsey Spence, of Fullerton, has been affirmed in superior court by Judge H. G. Ames, after a hearing in the case of Ed Wyatt, charged with possession of intoxicating liquor. Wyatt was convicted and fined $500 in the lower court and appealed the case to superior court. Judge Ames granted a five-day stay of execution.

SEVEN DIVORCE DECREES GIVEN IN COURT HERE

One annulment and seven divorces were on superior court records today following the regular default hearings which are conducted weekly in the court.

The annulment was granted by Judge G. K. Scovel to Mary E. Stockton, who was married on August 17, 1929, to Clarence R. G. Stockton, after she convinced the court that her husband had another wife living and undivorced at the time he married her. Judge Scovel also granted divorce decrees to Jose M. Acuna from Juana B. Acuna on a charge of desertion, and to Violet M. Hooker on a cross-complaint against Russ Hooker. The Hookers were married on May 30, 1930, and separated ed November 18, 1930. Both charged cruelty in their complaints. Cruel and inhuman treatment was the basis on which Judge H. G. Ames granted an interlocutory decree to Dan McHenry and Barbara McHenry. They were married May 21, 1928, and separated August 7, 1929.

The other four decrees, all based on charges of cruel and inhuman treatment, were granted after hearings before Judge James L. Allen. Elsie A. Bales, as defendant and cross-complainant, was granted a decree when her husband Ida R. Bales, who had brought the action originally, failed to appear at the hearing. They were married in 1911 and separated January 13, 1930. Other decrees were granted by Judge Allen to Margaret C. Corbett from Royal A. Corbett; Vesta M. Fuller from Curtis D. Fuller; and Peter M. Soules from Ida Soules.

Bible Institute Group At Church

A gospel team composed of students from the Bible Institute of Los Angeles had charge of the evening service at the Tustin Presbyterian church yesterday in a special service for young people. They presented a program of talks and music that is reported to have been very interesting and inspiring. The young people from a number of other churches were present at the service.

DR. MITCHELL DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Word was received today of the death of Dr. W. Leland Mitchell, who for several years was health officer in Santa Ana, and was well known in the county. He died in Budapest, Hungary, on November 20, 1930, from heart trouble while engaged in sanitation work in eastern Europe for the Rockefeller foundation.

Dr. Mitchell was sent to Orange county by the Rockefeller foundation to carry on anti-typhoid work here some years ago and stayed to carry out a complete sanitation program. Upon completion of his work he was sent to Europe as a health officer. Finally, just prior to his death, he was appointed head of the sanitation work in all eastern Europe, with Budapest as his headquarters.

He is survived by his wife, Marie Madeline Mitchell, whom he married in Budapest a short time ago, his mother, Mrs. Rose P. Barnes, residing in Stanton, Ill., and a sister, Mrs. Margaret H. Huff, of Los Angeles.

Hill Billies Are To Sing Tonight For S. A. Audience

Tonight the Beverly Hill Billies will appear in person in the auditorium of the Santa Ana High school. The concert is being given under the auspices of the 40 and 8 and the American Legion of Orange county and is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m.

All the members of the Hill Billies will be here, including the announcer, Mr. Tallfeller (Glen Rice), Lem, Ezra, Hank, Elton, Jod, and Zeke, with his little brown goat. The Hill Billies appear regularly as a featured program from station KMPC.

The Happy Chaplins, Naf Vincent and Freddie Howard, who have contributed more than 150 songs to the public, also will appear in an all-request program. Lord Algy, the old pineapple, will offer parodies that have made him famous over the station.

Services Are Held For W. G. Mitchell Here On Saturday

Impressive funeral services for W. G. Mitchell, pioneer resident of Orange county who was manager of the Irvine ranch for many years, were held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Smith and Tutill funeral home. The mortuary was filled with beautiful wreaths and bouquets of flowers. Robert Brown sang a sacred selection.

Palbearers for the occasion were W. B. Williams, Roy Browning, James Irvine, Jr., J. J. Banky, W. B. Hells, and R. Jeffrey. Honorary palbearers were A. J. Cruickshank, Dr. J. P. Boyd, James Sleeper, Harry Smith, Myford Irwin and Dr. Jear C. Murfin.

Interment was made in Fairhaven cemetery.

ASK $100,000 IN CONTRACT ACTION

An action in asserted breach of contract asking judgment of $100,000 as damages has been filed in superior court by C. O. Beardslee against Edward A. Hunter et al. The suit is based on an agreement for exploitation and development of a clay and sand pit on land near El Toro owned by the defendants, providing for the sale of the products refined and developed.

The complaint asserts that under an agreement with the defendants he erected a plant and perfected a process for separation of the sand and clay, making it available for the market, and that the defendants were to finance the construction of the plant and advance him $250 a month during its construction, and were to permit workmen at the plant to occupy a house on the property. Beardslee, who is an engineer, states in the complaint that the defendants failed to finance operations, and ejected his force from their property on Nov. 27, 1930.

Beardslee also asserts that through interference of the Hunters and their demands for payment of money, several deals that he had made with such concerns as the Algiers California corporation, Dixon Glass company and Illinois Pacific Glass company, were upset and that through their actions he has been prevented from deriving any benefit or operating the plant, to his damage in the amount of $100,000.

JAYCEE PLAYERS TO REPEAT DRAMA

A group of those who listened to the Santa Ana junior college's one-act play, "Submerged," which was presented over KREG last Wednesday morning by remote control from the Tustin union high school, petitioned the drama department at Jaycee to give a performance of the same production so that it might be seen personally.

This production is scheduled to take place on Tuesday morning at the regular 11 o'clock assembly time for the college. Ernest C. Phillips, director at that institution, announces that this is one of the most difficult plays from the standpoint of scenic production and acting that has been chosen this year. It is laid in the interior of a sunken submarine and shows dramatically the emotions of each type of man as he nears death. The cast is ably composed of Dean Wright and Robert dePree who portray the two leading parts of the coward and the commander, respectively; Mitchell Hookins as the "Dreamer"; Edward Conner as the "Lover"; Gene Olsen as the "Bully," and Ervin Couse as Nabb, the English cockney.

Pleads Guilty To Drunken Driving

Pleading guilty to a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, Jack Francis Coughlin, 32, auto salesman of 539 Daisy street, Long Beach, was sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail, in Judge J. P. Talbot's police court Saturday.

Coughlin was arrested Friday night by Officers Murray and Murillo at First and Main streets, when the officers stopped the car he was driving.

There are more holders of American Telegraph and Telephone company stock than people living in any one of the following states: Arizona, Delaware, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Utah, Vermont or Wyoming.

A Clear Complexion

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave his patients a substitute for calomel made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. Know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, causing a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, take one of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit, 15c, 30c and 60c.—(Adv.)

MEMBERSHIP IN V. F. W. IS EARNED

In prescribing qualifications for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. the organization has simply observed the same distinctions created by the government itself in its official forms of recognition commemorating distinctive service, it was pointed out today by Commander O. J. Stanbro, of Kellogg post, 1680, Santa Ana. Membership in the V.F.W. must be earned in the same manner as those government awards—by services properly rendered in line of duty, he said.

"By virtue of the fact that every man who has served his country ashore or afloat on foreign soil or in hostile waters is entitled to membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. is the only veteran organization destined to continue on throughout the history of the nation.

"Membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. is not confined to those who have seen service in any one war, campaign or expedition. Within its ranks are veterans who wore the uniform of their country while in the Philippines, Cuba, China, Haiti, Mexico, France, Germany, Siberia and Nicaragua.

"Since the armistice in 1918, nearly 50,000 ex-service men who saw action in the Nicaraguan outbreaks of 1926 and in the Second China campaign in 1926-27 have turned to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. as the only veteran group to which they are eligible as full fledged members."

NO WARRANT FOR SANDON ISSUED

The district attorney's office announced today that no bench warrant had been issued for Robert Sandon, investigator, as reported last week. An investigation showed that the warrant was never issued, although Justice Kenneth Morrison ordered a warrant when Sandon failed to appear in a check case in the justice court.

Sandon was in Sacramento and San Francisco on business for the district attorney's office at the time and could not appear in court, it was pointed out, and never received the subpoena for his appearance in justice court. Although the bench warrant was ordered issued, Justice Morrison said today that it would not be served now and the incident is closed as far as that court is concerned, he said.

KIWANIS VISIT AT SAN CLEMENTE

Twenty-five Santa Ana Kiwanians paid a visit to the San Clemente club Friday, inspected the new Boy Scout camp there and then adjourned to the Spanish Village links where a team match was played. More than 50 Kiwanians dined at A. Travaglini's cafe at noon with Win Keel, San Clemente Kiwanis president, in charge of the meeting.

Andy Anderson, Santa Ana, KREB entertainer, introduced a new song, "San Clemente, My Home Town," by Anderson and Sunny Sundquist.

C. W. Rowland, Santa Ana, delivered the principal address, talking on golf, one of the oldest of known industries.

Charley Walker, Santa Ana Kiwanis president, had charge of the entertainment part of the program. Roy George of Santa Ana had charge of the meeting.

In the past decade, the number of telephones in the City of Detroit has increased from 149,000 in 1921 to 333,000 in 1931. The city now has about 145,000 dial telephones, which almost equals the total number of telephones in 1920.

Eight-Year Lease Signed On Dance Pavilion At Beach

NEWPORT BEACH, March 16.—Confirmation of the report that the Balboa Beach Amusement company, owner of the Rendezvous ballroom in Balboa, has leased the Pavilion, dance palace overlooking the bay, from the owners, the Newport Bay Investment company, came today, when it was announced that the Pavilion will be open under its new management during Easter week.

The length of the lease is eight years, it was reported. The amusement company will operate both ballrooms at least during the summer season. This winter, for the first time, it operated the Rendezvous all the year, remaining closed only one night, Monday, during the entire "winter."

Ray G. Burlingame, president of the company, agreed with real estate men here that the collegiate carnival, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, will attract much larger crowds than ever before this year. It will run from March 28 to April 5.

At the age of 93 years, Mrs. Hannah Smith of Harrow, England, recently used the telephone for the first time in her life.

RECITAL WILL BE STAGED BY LOCAL PUPILS

Pupils of Miss Claire Coutant will stage a recital of 50 or more numbers with over 100 performing on March 21, at Santa Ana High school at 8 o'clock. These will be of various types of songs and dances and all will be beautifully costumed. Many numbers would give credit to the professional stage, it is asserted. All the proceeds will go toward the students loan fund.

A number of the solo dancers are very well known throughout Orange county for their clever dancing. Miss Thelma Trickey has been acclaimed many times for her acrobatic dancing. She has a new and novel dance to give this time. Gloria Clem, one of Santa Ana's youngest acrobatic dancers, will offer a very difficult dance with a beach ball. Lorraine Turk will present a clever soft shoe number. Eileen Edwards will be seen in a charming toe dance. Thomas Carl Sutton has gone in for comedy this time and will present a song and dance. Betty Bondley, Vera Getty, Lorene McMillan, Le Vene Parks all have new dances that are both difficult and entertaining. There are many lovely group numbers. The Baby Blue Birds, 30 on the stage at one time, all under six years of age, will chase the blues away. All the modern tap steps, together with toe character and national dances will be featured.

HARDING

HARDING, March 16.—Charles Anderson, of Los Angeles, is visiting his cousin, Claybourne Anderson, of Hansen road, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rhude and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stokes, of Long Beach, Sunday. Mr. Rhude spent part of the day fishing.

Mrs. Don Green entertained with a dinner Wednesday night. Covers were laid for Mrs. Alta Bobst and daughter, Melva Doris; Mrs. Evelyn Bobst, of Harding; Mrs. Arline Foster and son, Dickie, and Mrs. Wilma Bobst of Crescent avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews and daughter, Patsy, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Samis and children, of Monterey Park, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bobst.

Lawrence Simpson is entertaining his cousin this week, Mabel Neal, of Ollinda.

James Small, of Cleveland, O., is a guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lazich.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gearhart, of Los Angeles, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Anderson Sunday. Jeanne and Ruby Rice are out of school with an attack of the influenza.

OFFERS COMEDY

Carl Sutton, shown below, will present a humorous song and dance at the recital to be given March 21 at the Santa Ana High school auditorium, by pupils of Miss Claire Coutant.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 16.—Mrs. Al Onson and children have moved back to their home on Huntington Beach boulevard. The family moved to the city to be near the schools, but now that the school term is nearing an end they have decided to move back to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and their daughters, Jean and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bushard and son, Billie, Costa Mesa; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Talbert and son, Costa Mesa; Mrs. Charles Ward, Talbert, moved to Paula and Rincon Sunday, visiting a little mission church and enjoying the scenic trip.

Mrs. Ida Kruger and son, Bobbie, of Los Angeles, visited at the Earl Quiggle home on Frankfort street Saturday. Sunday Mrs. Kruger took her nieces, Dorothy and Ruth, to San Diego to visit relatives.

Mrs. Eva Rhodes, 710 Orange avenue, who has been ill for several weeks, is recuperating.

John Stout and Lois Stout were week end guests in the home of Miss Frances Hill at 633 Frankfort street.

The tenth birthday anniversary of Helen Murray was celebrated with a party at her home. Her mother Mrs. Martin Murray, was assisted by Mrs. C. P. Lambert. Following a group of games, refreshments were served at the pretty table decorated in green and white. Helen's guest list included her sister, Florence Murray, Evelyn Wood, Robert and Mary Jean Lambert, Ross Brown, Alice Slater, Andrea Gardner, Jimmie Newby, Margaret Burry, Betty Kikuchi, Etsuko Furuta, Wilbur Fox, Christine Tunstall.

Mrs. Maude Crittenden, who has been seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Stewart, on Frankfort drive, is recuperating.

Mrs. Amanda Severson, Mrs. John Barnhart, Miss Mary Turner and Mrs. Roy K. Smith entertained at a luncheon recently at the home of Mrs. Smith on Eleventh street, for the benefit of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church. A delicious luncheon was served. For COLDS

We all catch colds and they can make us miserable; but yours needn't last long if you will do this: Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin just as soon as possible after a cold starts. Stay in the house if you can—keep warm. Repeat with another tablet or two of Bayer Aspirin every three or four hours, if those symptoms of cold persist. Take a good laxative when you retire, and keep bowels open. If throat is sore, dissolve three tablets in a quarter-glassful of water and gargle. This soothes inflammation and reduces infection. There is nothing like Bayer Aspirin for a cold, or sore throat. And it relieves aches and pains almost instantly. The genuine tablets, marked Bayer, are absolutely harmless to the heart.

"Everyone Loves a Fighter"

RICHFIELD is winning new friends every day!

It is winning the respect and admiration of the western motoring public because it is out there fighting. Fighting courageously and aggressively to maintain its high position in the oil industry.

Richfield won its position of prominence years ago because its colorful, fighting personality appealed to the sport-loving west. Everyone admired this small hard-hitting company... and helped it on its way up to major size and importance.

Now... they are helping it to stay there. And Richfield, in its own organization is doing everything possible to merit this public confidence. Its splendid marketing unit is functioning like the well-trained, efficient machine that it is. And its products... long noted for their outstanding quality... have been improved to a point where they are better today than ever before in the history of the company.

Richfield wants your business. But it wants that business not alone because of Richfield's importance to western industry and western prosperity... but because you cannot buy a finer gasoline than Richfield.

SLIDE Twenty Schools In Huntington Beach Meet

SAINTS SLATED TO LOSE MEET CHAMPIONSHIP

Huntington Beach's tenth annual Southern Counties Invitational meet, the best prep track and field extravaganza in Southern California, is expected to be a disappointment for the local team.

Twenty high schools and more than 200 athletes already have signified their intention of participating, according to Harry Sheue, head of the Huntington Beach high school athletic department and manager of the meet.

Ray ("Foot") Walker, former Huntington coach and the man who originated the annual classic, will be the guest of honor.

With fewer individual stars than usual on hand, the battle for first place is expected to be warmer than in recent years when either the Santa Ana Saints or San Diego won the title with comparative ease.

Santa Ana is defending champion but its great titular team of 1930 was wrecked by graduation and the Saints are not given a chance to retain the bauble.

San Diego, Chaffey and Riverside are considered the strongest entries this season, with the Hilltoppers probably having the best of the pre-meet schools.

The following schools have notified Sheue of their plan to enter teams: Brea-Olinda, Orange, Oceanside, Fullerton, Huntington Beach, Newport Harbor, Chaffey, Elsinore, San Bernardino, San Diego, El Centro, Harvard, Riverside, Santa Ana, Garden Grove, Anaheim, Tustin, Redlands and Grossmont.

S. A. SKEETMEN WIN FROM LOS ANGELES

Santa Ana's skeet team scored a decisive victory over Los Angeles, 210 to 199, in a 250-target match yesterday. Walter Berry shot a perfect 25 during the competition and broke 47 of a possible 50 during the contest. Rex Rogers was second high with 44. The scores:

Santa Ana: Arnold Peek 22, 20-42; W. W. Berry 22, 25-47; Carl Henne 17, 13-38; Rex Rogers 23, 21-44. Totals: Los Angeles 18, 22-40; Santa Ana 22, 25-47.

Club skeet scores follow: Herb Carter, 22; O. Farish, 21; B. Perkins, 21; Ed Holmes, 20; C. Swins, 20; T. Rantzen, 19; D. Clayton, 17; S. Peak, 15; A. Yarbrough, 15; H. Heames, 14; C. Ryan, 14; A. Erickson, 10; F. Knight, 8.

Straight traps: Gregg, 28; Nau, 23; Andrews, 21; Knight and Kraemer, 20; Holmes and Yarbrough, 19; Ryan, 17, and Clayton, 12.

PIRATE PLAYER MORMON

Lee Johnson, Salt Lake City, tallest member on the Pittsburgh Pirates ball club, is a full-fledged Mormon. His parents came from Sweden, a quarter of a century ago, settled in Utah and adopted the Mormon religion. Johnson is 6 feet, two and a half inches tall.

Olive Scene Of Baseball Men's Meet

Organization, playing rules and season schedules are major subjects due for official discussion at tonight's meeting of the Southern California Night Baseball association at Olive tonight.

Business Manager John Wilcox and Field Manager George Lackaye will represent Santa Ana at the confab.

Indications are that all of the old teams will see the starting mark in the American Night league except Orange and perhaps La Habra, while the American Night league expects two new entries, San Bernardino and Rialto.

The new 13 1/2-inch ball, recommended by the rules committees of the leagues, probably will be adopted officially tonight.

FUENTE FACES LEROY HAYNES HERE THURSDAY

Mexico's one-time candidate for the world's heavyweight championship—Tony Fuente—makes his first appearance in the Orange County Athletic club ring Thursday night.

Promoter-Matchmaker Benny Whitman has paired the big Mexican with Leroy Haynes, giant Negro, who will be remembered for his bouts here with Frank Rudzinski and Tim Charles and his victory at Culver City over Ernie Owens immediately after Owens had given Max Baer a tremendous fight.

Fuente is just a trial horse these days, not very good and not very bad, but he figures, on form and past performance, to give Haynes a workout at least. This is more than the big black man has ever had here.

In the semi-final between Jack Magrina and Jimmy Bell, two light-heavyweights, Whitman expects to pick a suitable opponent for Joe Goeders. These boys are well thought of by all the fight managers. Magrina is fast becoming the outstanding Mexican big boy at the Main street gym. In one of his last fights, he handed out a fine lesson to Tim Charles. Bell claims a decision over Hans Birkie of San Francisco who beat Vigo Doman.

The special event will bring together a more or less grudge bout which was in the making before Henry Foust turned over the arena to Willson and Whitman. Baby Jack Dempsey will box Cliff Burrier.

In the Frankie Manns vs. Pete Savedra fight, Orange county fans will see a real slugging match between two featherweights, both of whom have fought sensational fights with Tony Moreno.

The fight before the Manns-Savedra go will be a return match between Johnny Godinez, Mexican, and Tommy Santos, Filipino. These boys put up what is considered one of the best fights seen at Pismo Beach three weeks ago.

Adam Moraga, Santa Ana's good featherweight, meets Danny Robles, a promising lad from Long Beach. The management has again made a cut in prices, viz: gallery, remains 50c; bleachers reduced to 75c; reserved cushion seats reduced to $1; and the ringside remains at $1.50.

THE TROJAN GRIDMEN REPORT TO JONES FOR SPRING PRACTICE

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—With attention of fans focused on new men and on possible new twists in the Jones system, three weeks of spring football practice opened today at the University of Southern California with "Head Man" Howard Jones in charge.

Although only three regulars of the 1930 Trojan varsity are expected to report for spring gridiron work, nearly all will be on hand. Erny Pinkert, All-American half-back; Captain-elect Stan Williamson, center; and Ernie Smith, right tackle, will be the only regular substitutes of last fall who won U. S. C. monograms will be out, among them Al Pieh, left tackle; Gaius Shaver, fullback; Ray Brown, right tackle; Bill Hawkins, center; and Byron Gentry, left guard.

With four regulars of 1930 lost to the lineup of '31 and with several changes contemplated among returning men by Coach Jones, the followers of Southern California's football fortunes will watch with interest the manner in which Troy's head man will manipulate his material during spring work.

Bob Erskine, Julius Beascoa and Ford Palmer, freshman ends, will probably control the wing positions with Garrett Arbelide out for baseball. Ralph Wilcox to be starting giving an old knee injury a rest, Aaron Rosenberg, frosh running guard, is slated to get a trial at a tackle job, while Ray Gribb and Lawrence Stevens of the freshman squad will also try out at tackle.

With Rosenberg shifted to tackle and Kenny Baker out with an injured shoulder, John Dye will be the only freshman guard prospect. Frank Williamson is now concentrating on the javelin throw in track, leaving Curtis Youel of Santa Ana the only center candidate from the Trojans.

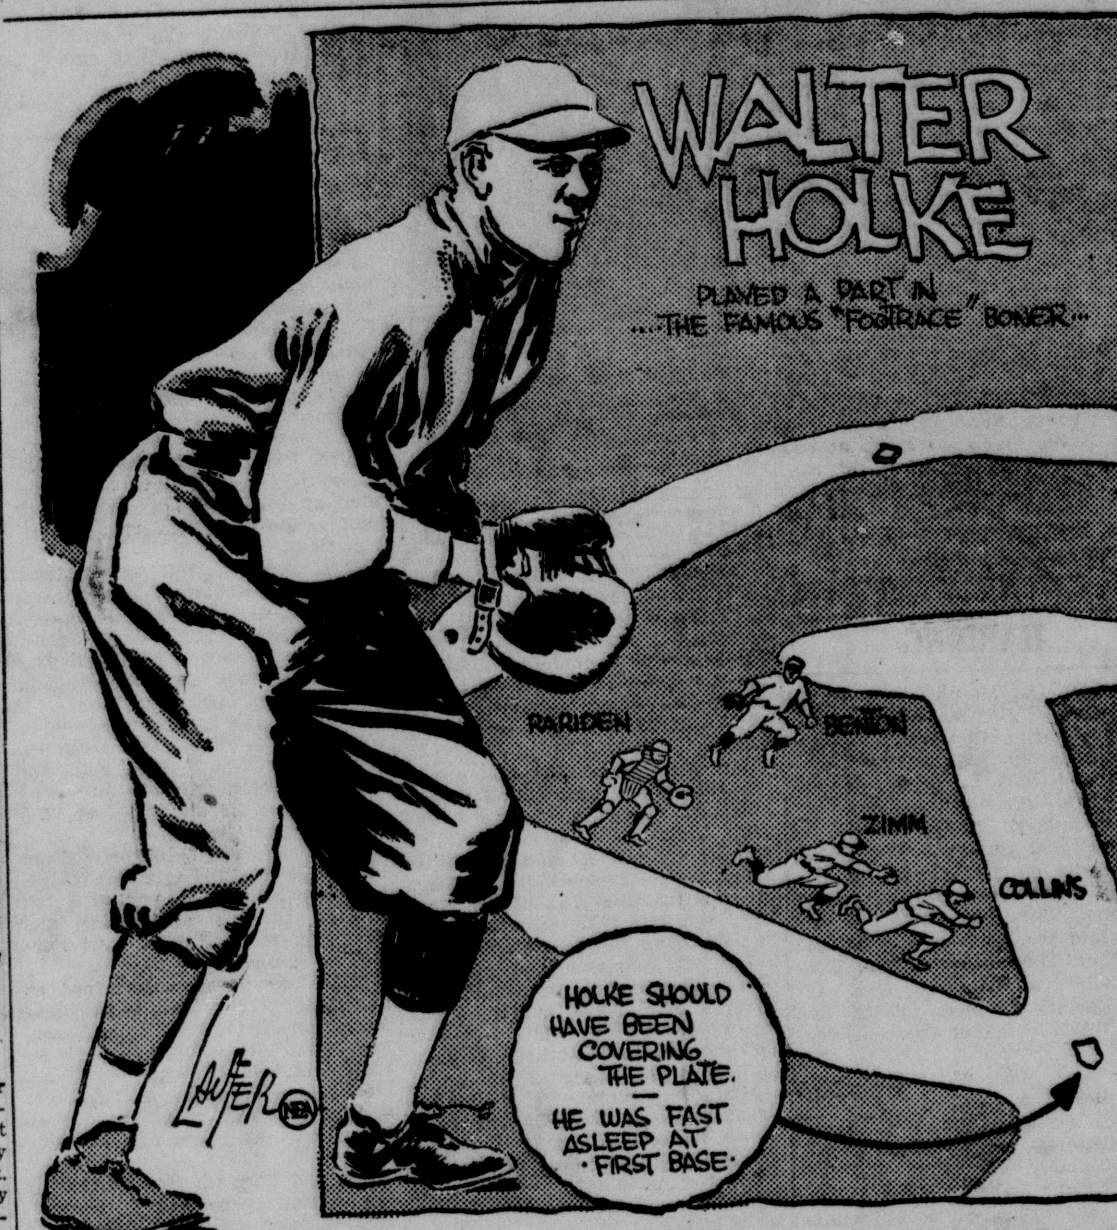

Gordon Clark, Kenneth Fay, Homer Griffith and Herald Williams loom as the principal backfield candidate coming up from the first year eleven.

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—(UP)—Intent on proving his contention that he can beat Bill Tilden on outdoor courts, where he has proven easy prey for the lanky champion indoors, Karel Kozeluh, Czechoslovakian professional defeated Tilden in straight sets at the Los Angeles Tennis club yesterday, his second consecutive victory. Kozeluh lost 10 matches to Tilden in their recent barnstorming tour.

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—(UP)—Fred Haney, third baseman for the Los Angeles Pacific Coast league baseball team, will be out of the lineup for the 1931 season, it was learned today. He has been under observation at Cedars of Lebanon hospital, and Dr. C. E. Early, attending physician, ordered the removal of Haney's kidney. The operation will take place this week.

Haney has been the leading third sacker in the coast league for two years. "Doc" Farrell, former Chicago Cub infielder, will replace Haney at third base.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS - - - - - By LAUFER

THE EDDIE COLLINS-HEINIE ZIMM footrace in the 1917 world series is still a subject of hot stove league discussion. It is unfair to lay the entire blame on Zimmerman, however, as there was a combination of mental errors on the play. Here is the setting: Eddie Collins was on third when Joe Jackson tapped the ball to Pitcher Rube Benton. Benton whirled and caught Collins off third. A run-down between Zimm, Collins and Catcher Bill Rariden ensued. Collins was sliding into home, Rariden was covering the plate. Zimm was holding the ball. Too late to throw, Zimm chased Collins across the plate with the winning run. Firstbaseman Walter Holke, who should have covered the plate, was fast asleep on first base. Who should have been blamed for the boner?

S. A. Golfers To Play L. A. At Lakeside

The Lakeside Country club's golf course has been selected as the neutral layout where Santa Ana and Los Angeles (South course) will meet next Sunday in the first round of playoffs for the 1931 Southern California interclub golf championship.

The matches were put ahead until Sunday to permit San Diego and Mountain Meadows, winners of Groups 1 and 2, respectively, to play over the Agua Caliente Country club course.

Lakeside, Group 3 winner, and Rancho of Group 4, defending champion, play at Wilshire; Los Angeles, South (Group 5) vs. Santa Ana (Group 6) at Lakeside, and Flintridge (Group 7) vs. Glendale (Group 8) at Bel-Air.

Semi-finals are scheduled for the north course of the Los Angeles Country club and Midwick. Finals will be played at Riviera.

ANNUAL SPRING PRACTICE WILL RUN 2 MONTHS

Spring football practice will begin at Santa Ana high school next Monday afternoon, Coach "Tex" Oliver announced today.

Leisurely workouts will be held for almost two months, with intersquad and interschool games and finally a regularly scheduled contest with some outside school teaming off the campus early in June. A tilt between last year's eleven and next season's prospective squad will be another feature of the program.

With almost the entire 1930 backfield and many members of the line graduating in June, thereby leaving many holes to be filled, a host of candidates is expected to report to Coach Oliver.

As is customary with spring training, the work will be light and will consist principally of trying new plays and new men. No boys who are trying out with any other spring sport—baseball, track, or tennis—will be allowed to drop the other activity to join the spring football squad.

Coach Oliver plans to stress theory and fundamentals of his system, rather than go in for rough work although there will be enough scrimmages and actual competition to relieve the drudgery.

RADIO PROGRAM BY 'SOMBRERO' BOYS PLANNED

The Sombbrero entertainers will make their first appearance over the Santa Ana radio station tonight when they present a 30-minute program to be broadcast from the studio of KREG, from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Tennessee, Texas, Missouri and California are represented in this musical organization, which plays the violin, banjo, guitar and ukulele. Sid More, from Tennessee, handles the banjo; Sid Beal, from Texas, plays the violin; Henry Brewer, from Missouri, picks the guitar, while Gale Moore, a California boy, teases the ukulele.

There will be other outstanding features on the air tonight. On the children's hour, from 5:30 to 6 p. m., with Lorene Croddy, the story of the three pigs, along with a variety of other entertainment, will appeal to all.

Ray Dutton, pianist, will be on the air from 9:30 to 10 p. m. Ann Scheffer, blues singer, accompanied by Duncan Harnola, pianist, will be heard from 8:30 to 9 p. m.

Kenneth Workman, tenor, accompanied by Harold Garland Jr., will present a 15-minute program, from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. From 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., a program of phonograph records will be sponsored by the Lacy Furniture store, 506 North Broadway, and H. R. Trotter, watch and clock specialist.

A Farm bureau program will be on the air from 7 to 7:15 p. m. The Shoppers' Guide, featuring Duncan Harnola, pianist, will be broadcast from 6 to 6:45 p. m. The Radio Guide and news will be heard from 6:45 to 7 p. m.

MAY GET AIR RACES

ROME—If England decides not to stage the Schneider Cup international airplane races this year, Italy will automatically be selected for the speed events, according to the International Aeronautical Federation. England has announced it will lend machines or pilots for the race, and has transferred the responsibility for holding the event in Britain to the Royal Aero club.

CHECK-UP ON PHYSIQUE OF PUPILS URGED

By K. H. SUTHERLAND, M. D.
County Health Officer

The California Congress of Parents and Teachers, together with the state health department and the local health departments have started their annual campaign to provide children who will enter school for the first time next fall, with thorough and complete physical examinations. This "round-up" of children will continue during March, April and May and will be carried on not only in Orange County but in most of the counties of the state. A similar campaign, undertaken last year, covered 48 counties, in which over 19,000 children of preschool age were examined. This activity has the full endorsement of educational authorities. The director of the State Department of Education says, "Physical defects in children have so much to do with their school progress and their ultimate success in life that I urge all superintendents, principals and teachers to cooperate with the Bureau of Child Hygiene of the State Board of Health in this effort." Parents of children of preschool age who desire to have their children given proper physical examinations before entering school should communicate with the Orange County Health department in regard to appointments for such examinations. Where parents prefer to take their children to the family physician for the physical check-up, the health department would appreciate the information that the examination has been given in this manner so that the final report of the total number examined may be given to the state as complete as possible.

In this campaign, an endeavor will be made only to discover physical defects that may exist, and where examinations are performed by the health department staff, there will be no charge. Arrangements for the correction of any physical defects that may be discovered will rest entirely with the parents of the children. It is important that these examinations be conducted during the spring months in order that there may be ample time to make children physically fit for the first grade when they enter school next fall. The County Health department requests parents who are interested to watch the papers for announcements of physical examination clinics to be held in their communities. The first clinic day is scheduled for Monday, March 16, at the Garden Grove Washington school between the hours of 10 and 12, and 2 and 4. Children who will enter the Diamond, Greenville and Paulino schools next year are offered examination at these schools on Tuesday morning, March 17. Examinations will be conducted at Laguna Beach on Tuesday, March 24, both morning and afternoon. Those people in that locality wishing appointments are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Roy Ropp who is local chairman for that community. Announcements of examination dates for other communities will appear in the local papers from time to time.

CONDUCT FUNERAL OF ANAHEIM WOMAN

ANAHEIM, March 16.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mattie Hendrix, 72, resident of Anaheim for the past 10 years, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the White Temple Methodist church, with the Rev. Ralph W. Lee officiating. Services and interment in the Angelus Abbey mausoleum were in charge of Hilgenfeld's Funeral home. Mrs. Hendrix is survived by one daughter, Mrs. C. H. Myers, of Anaheim; one son, R. P. Hendrix, of Los Angeles; one brother, J. P. Jones, and one sister, Mrs. Betty Nichols, both of Kansas, and two grandchildren.

She had been an active worker in the Methodist church for the last 50 years. She died Friday morning in the Anaheim sanitarium after an illness of but three days duration.

Addresses Heard Yesterday In Santa Ana Churches

USES LIVES OF SAUL, JUDAS AS SERMON THEME

Calling attention to two lives in the Bible, which he declared should serve as beacon lights of warning to all—those of Judas and Saul—the Rev. R. W. Harlow, pastor of the First United Brethren church, preached yesterday on the subject "The Tragic End of a Promising Life." He said in part:

"Few men have had such a promising beginning as Saul, king of Israel; few men have had such a disastrous end as he. In the Bible there are records of two lives which should serve as beacons of warning to all—there is Judas in the New Testament and Saul in the old. God chose them because of their capabilities, empowered them by His spirit, and exalted them to places of prominence in His kingdom, but how sad the ending of these mighty men! We have accounts of few lives that so completely show the outworking of the principles of sin as that of Saul."

"Humility, courage, and political preference, faith and obedience to God, were the characteristics of Saul's life. He was well qualified for the work to which he was called. The heart of a statesman was given him. But at the zenith of his day clouds began to gather and to darken his sky, and when his sun should have shown the brightest, its shining was dimmed."

"The sin of disobedience caused the clouds to gather. First he did what he knew was wrong. (First Samuel 13:8.) and second, he did not do, or omitted to do what he knew God had commanded him to do. (First Samuel 15:15.) We may not quite understand some of the seemingly harsh commands of the word of God, but obedience is better than sacrifice, and the fat of lambs. God will take care of the kingdom and the bread and butter if we obey Him."

"If every minister would obey God and preach the word of God, and every professed Christian would practice the teachings of the word of God, it would not be long until a nation wide revival would be on, and the present crime wave would be retarded. For righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

"The people of this nation are sinning against light and knowledge, as Saul did, as Judas did, as Achan and Saffira did. The stormy night came to Saul. It will come to you if you continue to disobey the teachings of the word of God. Sinner, in the church or out, won't you accept Christ before the night ends in an awful storm? It's coming."

CHURCH CONCLAVE HERE ON APRIL 6

The annual convention of ministers of the Southern California Conference and Fellowship of the Four Square Gospel churches will be held in Santa Ana on April 6, it was announced today by the Rev. Wilfred C. Parham, pastor of the Santa Ana church.

Attendance of between 150 and 200 pastors is anticipated, and high officials from the Angeles Temple at Los Angeles will be present.

Business matters will be considered at the morning session, which will begin at 10 a. m. in the church. The session will be directed by the Rev. D. B. Alderman, general supervisor of all Four Square churches, Angeles Temple. Another Temple official, Dr. G. F. Gurden, will have charge of the afternoon session when missionary activities of the church will be discussed.

The evening session will be open to the public and will start at 7 p. m. This service will be conducted by Dr. Charles A. Shreve, of Washington, D. C., now assistant pastor of the Angeles Temple. Members of the international church board are expected to be present at this service.

CHURCH PLANNING WEEK OF PRAYER

A pre-Easter prayer week will be observed at the Spurgeon Memorial Methodist church this week with services at 7:15, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. Cecil M. Aker. There will be a brief address this evening on "What Prayer Really Meant to Jesus."

Some phase of the teaching of Christ and the New Testament in regard to prayer will be discussed each evening. There will also be prayers offered for the deepening of the religious life of the church and the awakening of its responsibility for the unevangelized in the community. All who are interested in such services are cordially invited to attend these meetings, the Rev. Mr. Aker said.

REASONS FOR GREATNESS OF CHURCH TOLD

Some of the reasons for the greatness of the church and some of its weaknesses were told to members of the congregation of the First Christian church yesterday morning by the Rev. Walter S. Buchanan, pastor, in his sermon on "The World's Greatest Institution." The text of the sermon was "And upon this rock will I build my church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it."

"There are a great many organizations in the world," he said. Among them are many fraternal organizations, some of which stress the spirit of Jesus; many social organizations doing splendid work; educational institutions, of which some of the finest are found here in California; political organizations—some very good and some very bad; many religious organizations, but only one Christian institution—the church of Jesus Christ. It is essential that this one have control of all others, for it is the greatest institution in the world."

"Speaking of political organizations, I believe we shall have the greatest campaign the world has ever seen in 1932. It behooves every Christian to be interested and active and up on his toes for this battle."

"The needs of society today are not more comforts, wealth or organizations, but moral ideals. They are needed in all the organizations we have mentioned if the will of God is to be done. Where are the ideals to come from that will help these organizations? From the church of Christ. It is the only one authorized and is the only one powerful enough and sympathetic enough to place moral ideals before these other organizations. The church is Christ Jesus—everything centers about Him, and He is the power and life."

"The spirit of lawlessness is abroad in the land. We learn of riots, mobs, lynchings, crime and murder. The church is the only organization with the power to stop this. It is a great task and responsibility for church members. Where do you stand, on the side of Jesus or Satan?"

"There are several reasons why the church is the greatest institution in the world. First, because of its origin. It came from the heart of God and is pure, holy and powerful."

JESUS CALLED BEST GUIDE TO HAPPY LIVING

"Jesus Among His Friends and Foes" was the subject of the Bible lesson at the Men's Community Bible class service in the Fox West Coast theater yesterday morning. The scripture lesson was read by J. W. Watkins, portraying Jesus at the home of Mary and Martha and later surrounded by the Pharisees and lawyers.

"Jesus comes to us and asks if we want to be His friends," said the class teacher, the Rev. Walter Scott Buchanan, pastor of the First Christian church. "If we do there are certain things we must do, chief of which is to keep His commands. Some of these commandments are that we believe in Him and that we love our neighbors. He is the One who will assist us today in living good lives and helping others."

"The lack of Jesus in our lives and failure to obey His commands is one reason we find the world in the condition in which it is today. We must turn to Him, for He is the true guide to peace, happiness, love and understanding."

"We would delight to be the friends of great and important persons in this world, so above all let us seek to be the friends of Jesus."

"In the home of Mary and Martha, Jesus was welcomed. Martha, business herself, in setting the house in order and preparing a meal for the Lord. Mary, however, stopped and listened to Jesus as He was talking of the great things of life and character. Jesus pointed out that both types were necessary in this world."

"When he was among his foes who were plotting to bring about His destruction He did not hesitate to condemn them. He characterized them as hypocrites and sinners who were not interested or active in the real work of the church."

"Keep away from these people, keep God in your hearts. You can serve Santa Ana and the entire nation by being His friends."

Mrs. P. Meredith McCluer, of Orange, appeared before the class yesterday in several readings. Her numbers, "It Takes a Heap O' Livin' in a House to Make it Home" by Edgar Guest, and "The Past" by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, were warmly received by the class members.

In the last 10 years men have taken their thoughts from Jesus and the church and there is a great need to bring them back. That is our task as Easter approaches."

Second, because of its mission, given by Christ, that of saving others. Third, because of its social service, Jesus left a commandment to help others—those in need and want. Fourth, because of its power to heal and fifth, because of its destiny."

"Some of the weaknesses of the church which we should work to overcome, are lack of faith, lack of loyalty and need for more holy living. We are playing with things of the world. Less than 30 per cent of the members of the church in Southern California are carrying the financial burden of its operation, and less than 40 per cent of its membership is attending services."

Special music at the morning service yesterday included a solo by Mrs. Howard Egan, a former soloist with the Wilshire Christian church in Los Angeles, and wife of one of the leading pastors in the Christian church.

DR. O. S. RUSSELL DELIVERS SERMON AT BAPTIST CHURCH FOR ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Anniversary services yesterday brought to a close the celebration of 60 years work by the First Baptist church in Santa Ana. The auditorium was dedicated in memory of those who had labored in the church and died.

FIRST SERVICE IS STAGED IN LOCAL THEATER

A large audience was present at the Mission theater auditorium, corner of Bush and Third street, last evening for the initial and dedicatory service of the Church of the Nazarene, which will hold all services there for an indefinite period. The service was in charge of the pastor, the Rev. U. E. Harding, who gave the prayer of dedication and delivered the sermon. By extensive remodeling of the interior of the building it has been successfully transformed to meet the demands. Many friends of the local congregation were present at the first service to offer their congratulations to the church leaders for the auspicious beginning in their new location. It was stated by the Rev. Mr. Harding.

A variety of musical numbers at the evening service featured local and out-of-town musicians. Mrs. Nell Fies, of Pasadena, and formerly of the Aeolian Women's quartet of Chicago, gave two soprano solos. Raymond Hutchens, trumpet soloist, played several numbers. The Women's quartet of the Santa Ana church sang "Jesus, Jesus" just preceding the sermon. The Rev. Russell V. Gray, of Pasadena, and an intimate friend of the pastor, offered prayer, and Mrs. U. E. Harding, soprano, sang, "Zion's Hill."

"God's Bread Line," was the theme of the evening sermon, based upon Matthew 5:6, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled." The Rev. Mr. Harding developed his theme by showing that God had made complete provision to satisfy every legitimate hunger in His created beings. "In the soul of man," he declared, "there is a deep hunger for God and man can never be happy until that desire has been satisfied."

The Rev. J. T. Little, superintendent of the Southern California district of the Church of the Nazarene, occupied the pulpit at the morning service yesterday. "The Coming of the Holy Spirit," was the theme discussed. "God," said the Rev. Mr. Little, "knows all about man. He has arranged a salvation which just fits the needs of the human heart. The heart of man was not created sinful but holy, and he that is in sin is not normal. When a foreign particle is in the eye there can be no rest until the irritating substance is removed. And just so, sin is a foreign substance in the soul. When sin is removed from the heart, then, and only then, the heart has rest—a rest promised by the Savior himself when He said, 'I will give you rest.'

"God has placed upon His followers the responsibility of carrying the good news of complete redemption to all who are in sin. But we cannot do this single-handed and alone, and God does not expect this of us. He has promised, and will give to us, the gift of the Holy Spirit who will be in us an indwelling source of holy power, enabling us to achieve exploits in the kingdom of Christ."

PASTOR TALKS ABOUT VALUE OF RELIGION

Calling attention to the fact that there were over a million people in the city of Los Angeles to whom religion had little value and declaring that the only way to get the real value out of religion was to share in the kind of life Jesus lived, the Rev. Perry Frederick Schrock, pastor of the First Congregational church, preached yesterday morning on the subject "Religion Has Value, If—"

"Religion has little value for the man in the grandstand, the onlooker," the pastor said. "The city of Los Angeles has a population of about a million and a quarter people. The membership of all churches, Protestant, Catholic, Jewish is a little less than a quarter of a million. Evidently there are a million people in that city for whom religion has little value. They are not interested. 'Where thy treasure is there will thy heart be also.' Why are they not interested? Or, what is it that gives value to religion?"

"I heard a startling statement the other day—startling to those who have taught the Bible as the way to secure right living. Here is the startling statement: 'Knowledge of the Bible does not carry over into conduct—unless we carry it over.' The author of those words was an eminent psychologist. He told how in an investigation of six thousand children they could discover no connection between Biblical knowledge and conduct. He also gave it as a matter of opinion, (there has been no investigation) that there was no appreciable effect upon conduct by a belief in God."

"What he was getting at is that merely the possession of knowledge or the holding of a belief does not affect conduct. It we carry over into activity our Biblical knowledge, or our belief, then conduct is influenced. Religion has value to those who are participants."

"Paul always presented religion as an active participation. 'We are the children of God; if children then heirs too—heirs of God and coheirs with Christ; if indeed we are sharers in Christ's sufferings, in order that we may be sharers in His glory.' 'In other words we will get the value out of religion that Jesus did if we share in the kind of life He lived.'"

"The need of a live gospel message that appeals and attracts was stressed last night by the Rev. Alice Wilson Parham at the Four Square Gospel church in her illustrated sermon on 'The Valley of Dry Bones.' The sermon was based on the 17th chapter of Ezekiel.

"Ezekiel was a prophet with a message of warning, prophecy, exhorting and pleading to the children of Israel, during the time of their captivity," the pastor said. "They had backslidden and were far away from God. They were supposed to be a separate people but they intermixed and intermarried with other nations, losing their power, their influence and identity. They were lifeless, powerless, fruitless, as faithful witnesses of God."

"As we look over the spiritual condition of the world and people today we see the same condition prevails. Many people have forgotten God they have backslidden, they have spurned His mercy and have intermingled with the things of the world till they have lost their power and influence."

"I can imagine Ezekiel passing around that valley of bones. Look there were very many in the open valley. You did not have to dig nor spade them out—they were everywhere, and they were very dry. God told Ezekiel to prophesy to them and they should live and become a great army for the Lord."

"Today the preaching of the gospel should create a stir, it should create an interest. As those bones came to life and stood upon their feet we also should be alive unto Christ with a live Gospel that appeals and attracts. We should have a lively, interesting gospel to suit a lively world. A gospel like Ezekiel's to cause dead bones to come to life."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Substance" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

One of the Scripture selections included the following verses from Matthew: "And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick. And when it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, 'This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals. But Jesus said unto them, 'They need not depart; give ye them to eat. And they say unto Him, 'We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. He said, 'Bring them hither to Me. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, He blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to His disciples and the disciples to the multitude."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, stated, "In the scientific relation of God to man, we find that whatever blesses one blesses all, as Jesus showed with the loaves and the fishes.—Spirit, not matter, being the source of supply."

SAYS GOSPEL MESSAGE MUST HAVE APPEAL

"Ezekiel was a prophet with a message of warning, prophecy, exhorting and pleading to the children of Israel, during the time of their captivity," the pastor said. "They had backslidden and were far away from God. They were supposed to be a separate people but they intermixed and intermarried with other nations, losing their power, their influence and identity. They were lifeless, powerless, fruitless, as faithful witnesses of God."

"As we look over the spiritual condition of the world and people today we see the same condition prevails. Many people have forgotten God they have backslidden, they have spurned His mercy and have intermingled with the things of the world till they have lost their power and influence."

"I can imagine Ezekiel passing around that valley of bones. Look there were very many in the open valley. You did not have to dig nor spade them out—they were everywhere, and they were very dry. God told Ezekiel to prophesy to them and they should live and become a great army for the Lord."

"Today the preaching of the gospel should create a stir, it should create an interest. As those bones came to life and stood upon their feet we also should be alive unto Christ with a live Gospel that appeals and attracts. We should have a lively, interesting gospel to suit a lively world. A gospel like Ezekiel's to cause dead bones to come to life."

"The need of a live gospel message that appeals and attracts was stressed last night by the Rev. Alice Wilson Parham at the Four Square Gospel church in her illustrated sermon on 'The Valley of Dry Bones.' The sermon was based on the 17th chapter of Ezekiel.

At Party Given By Co-Hostesses

The approaching marriage of Miss Frances Wickersheim of this city to Marion C. Henry of Anaheim was incentive for a delightful party of Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Ernest G. Sawyer of Anaheim and Mrs. Edward F. Wickersheim entertaining in the latter's home, 219 South Broadway.

A profusion of colorful spring blossoms provided a setting for the games of the afternoon, with the honoree winning first prize and Mrs. Archie Henry sr., consolation. Fortune smiled broadly on Miss Wickersheim, for soon after she removed the wrappings from the attractive gift, she was presented with a prettily decorated box full of gayly-tied packages. The box was presented by her brother, Edward, and her tiny cousin, Marjorie Mae Adams.

During the refreshment course the popular St. Patrick's motif prevailed, with tall green tapers centering the small tables decked in varying tints of green. Those sharing the hospitality of Mrs. Sawyer and Mrs. Wickersheim, other than the bride-elect, were Mrs. O. H. Dunkin, Mrs. Bruce Hays, Bernie Hays, Mrs. J. J. Williams and Marjorie Mae Adams, of this city; Mrs. Harold Kyle, Mrs. Archie Henry sr., Miss Lela Sawyer and Mrs. James Harde of Anaheim; Mrs. Ray Cavett, Mrs. Clarence Eldridge, Mrs. Oliver Wickersheim and Mrs. James Wickersheim of Orange.

Mrs. William J. Wickersheim, of Fullerton; Mrs. Robert Wilson, Walnut Park; Miss Lou M. Wickersheim, Mrs. Emma Hall, Miss Elsie Wickersheim, Miss Mildred Wickersheim, Mrs. Walter Hill and Mrs. Lloyd D. McWhirter of Los Angeles; Miss Mabel Wickersheim, Pomona; Mrs. C. E. Harshman and Miss Edith Harshman, Torrance; Mrs. Vernon Mulholland and Mrs. Walter B. McNary, Santa Paula.

Miscellaneous Shower Is Compliment to Miss Holmes

Miss Geneva Holmes, lovely young fiancée of Edgar Elsner, was complimented delightfully Friday, when her cousin, Miss Inez Chambliss, joined with Miss Lois Lamb in presenting a pretty party in the home of Miss Lamb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lamb, 630 South Sycamore street.

Vivid green St. Patrick symbols vied with pink sweet peas in contributing color and charm to the decorative appointments amidst which the guests enjoyed a lively session of cards. Miss Margaret Waggoner scored high in the contest and received a box of stationery while a deck of cards was presented Miss Juanita Wallace as second prize.

Late in the evening the young hostesses invited their guests to the dining room where everyone was interested in the table, charming in its green linens over which were scattered shamrocks, wriggling little candy snakes, and other appropriate symbols of Erin's Isle and its patron saint, all presided over by the dignified small bride and groom prominent in the very center of the table. Mrs. Lamb assisted in the serving of the refreshing salad and sandwiches followed by delicious cake and ices.

Arrival of a group of young men seemed especially fortuitous, for they not only shared in the appetizing supper, and in the dancing to radio music which followed, but they were in time to see Miss Holmes open a great array of packages that had been put at her place at the head of the table as soon as the ices were served. The gifts were miscellaneous in nature, all to be used in her future home.

The young men who shared the finale of the party included Messrs. Edgar Elsner, George Winter, Ralph Gordon, George Lake, Woody Barnett, Holmes Chambliss and Arthur Hadley, while the girls sharing the happily planned hospitality of Miss Lamb and Miss Chambliss were their honoree, Miss Holmes, and the Misses Alice Lamb, Margaret Waggoner, Ella Pielis, Juanita Wallace, Pauline Graham, "Bobbie" Warnke and Hawthorne Hunter.

Birthdays Celebrated
By Family Group at Dinner Party

Especially delightful was a 1 o'clock dinner party held yesterday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Lauderbach, 1805 Spruce street, when several close relatives were entertained in observance of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Lauderbach and her brother, Archie D. Gorton, Huntington Park, which occurred last week.

An enjoyable four-course dinner was served at a large dining table, with pink sweet peas forming the centerpiece while tapers, nut baskets and other appointments carried out the pink and white theme employed by the hostess. A delectable feature of the last course was a large birthday cake which had been made by Mrs. Archie D. Gorton.

Yesterday was also occasion for special rejoicing because of the fact that Mrs. Maria Gorton, mother of Mrs. Lauderbach and Mr. Gorton, who has been ill in bed for the past month, was able to be up and eat at the table with them. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with music and conversation, and several nice gifts were presented the two honorees.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Archie D. Gorton and son, Alvin, Huntington Park; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lauderbach, Santa Ana, parents of the host; Mrs. Marie Gorton, Santa Ana, mother of the hostess; Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Lauderbach and children, Marjorie, Leon, Victor and Ruth Marie.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Mrs. Blair's Class

When members of Mrs. Thomas Blair's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting recently with Mrs. J. L. McBride, 1116 Spruce street, they elected officers. Those chosen were Mrs. E. L. Hull, president; Mrs. Herbert Alleman, vice president; Mrs. Mary Snyder, secretary, and Mrs. R. D. Flaherty, treasurer. Other business included the adoption of a new constitution.

Bouquets of fragrant gardenias decked the rooms where a pleasing program was held following the business session. Miss Marian Pletke gave several piano numbers and Miss Charlene Lowell gave readings. A surprise feature of the evening was the presentation of a lovely basket of flowers to Mrs. Otto Hawley in honor of her birthday.

During the social hour, refreshments served evidenced the refreshing St. Patrick's theme.

Class Dinner

Successful in hosting high honors in a membership contest of the church groups, members of the tenth grade girls' Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church were recent guests of their teacher, Mrs. Allan McDermott, in her home, 202 West Twentieth street. An appetizing dinner was served, with spring flowers decorating the rooms. After-dinner hours were devoted to games and contests.

Those present to share Mrs. McDermott's hospitality were Nellie Stratton, Caroline Billingsley, Mary Jane Mitchell, Edith Johnson, Dorothy Carey, Almina Hitterbach, Mildred Cowan, Phyllis Beck, Letitia Morgan, Mary Ann Baxter, Marlan Hawk and Marjorie Lauderbach.

United Brethren

The United Brethren Missionary society held annual election of officers Thursday at an all-day session in the home of Mrs. Percy Gammell, 836 West Myrtle street.

A short business session in charge of the president, Mrs. W. C. Sidman was held in the morning at which time reports of the year's work were given by officers and heads of committees. After the reports the society sang the Doxology as voicing their thanks for the work which they had been able to accomplish throughout the year.

At noon a covered dish luncheon was served cafeteria style, and at 1:30 o'clock the meeting was again called to order by the president and election of officers for the new year opened the afternoon session. The following women were chosen: Mrs. W. C. Sidman, president; Mrs. Ed Roman, vice-president; Mrs. Scott Wiles, secretary; Mrs. P. Gammell, treasurer; Mrs. C. H. Gilbert, secretary of thank-offering; Mrs. R. W. Harlow, secretary of literature and Mrs. L. C. Morgan, secretary of stewardship.

Mrs. Harlow announced that the society had made 100 per cent on the standard of excellence, the last point of which was gained when five new members were welcomed into the society at last Thursday's meeting making a gain of five per cent in membership during the year.

Mrs. J. H. Noble had charge of the program and used for the subject of the devotion service "Witnessing by Being Attractive." During the devotion Mrs. Ed Roman sang two solos, "Open My Eyes That I May See" and "Give Me a Heart Like Jesus," both of which were very appropriate to the lesson. The prayer service was led by Miss MacLean. Mrs. Spey and Mrs. Noble. The section of the study book "Between the Americas" which was outlined for the afternoon's study was "Cuba" and different parts of the study were given by Mrs. Wiles, Mrs. Gammell, Mrs. Jamison, Mrs. East and Mrs. Harlow.

Those who attended the meeting were Mesdames Elsie Easter, G. W. Jamison, O. M. Harrison, H. B. Spey, Nettie Davis, Rena M. Fryatt and daughter, Marjorie Lucille, C. H. Gilbert, S. A. Klester, W. O. Sidman, E. B. Hazen, Scott Wiles, Nettie Ellis, L. C. Morgan, William Lees, Sarah Harlow, Bertha Roman, H. A. Colby, R. W. Harlow, J. H. Noble, William Hart, Will Siewko and daughter, Edith, and Miss H. MacLean and the hostess, Mrs. Gammell.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Lowell School

An enthusiastic group of mothers met recently with Dr. Gertrude Laws for her last class in parent training in the kindergarten room of Lowell school. The subject of the discussion was "Increase Interest and Understanding of School Procedures."

At the close of the class, the president of the P. T. A., Mrs. A. H. Meyers, called the meeting to order. A short business session followed the singing of "America" and the flag salute. A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Dove and Mrs. Rose was appointed. Mrs. R. R. Russell announced an silver tea to be held in the home of Mrs. Hardin on South Flower street. At this time blocks of a quilt are to be placed and money from the offering will go toward buying material for lining and filling the quilt.

J. A. Cranston, city superintendent of schools, discussed the subject of discontinuing report cards. At the close of his talk an interesting and helpful discussion was held. During the social hour light refreshments were served by Mrs. Tomlinson and Mrs. Gammell.

Varied Social Events
Are Complimenting Charming Guest

Although her stay in the Southland is to be a brief one, Mrs. John Fletcher of San Francisco, house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Chenoweth, 2427 Heliopole drive, is finding every day has its quota of delightful events, as friends hasten to make her visit doubly delightful.

Mrs. Fletcher, writer, traveler and lecturer, gave pleasure to many different persons on Friday night of last week, when she gave a fascinating account of some of her African adventures and experiences, as the program feature of the Ebels finance committee dinner. Among the 200 and more guests gathered to share the dinner and program, were many private parties, including that at which Mr. and Mrs. Chenoweth presided in their sister's honor.

This particular group followed the dinner and program, by driving to the Country club where they brought the evening to a conclusion by joining in the informal dance with progress there with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Townsend as hosts.

Mrs. Maurice Clark, mother of Mrs. Chenoweth and Mrs. Fletcher, shared the dinner and program but did not go on to the country club affair with the group of dinner guests who included in addition to hosts and their honor guest, Miss Ruth Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. John Doldridge and Mr. and Mrs. Joan Lillano of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hermon, Dr. and Mrs. William A. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gustlin, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard G. Swales, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Winckler and Judge and Mrs. James B. Tuck.

Yesterday the desert exerted its lure and Mr. and Mrs. Chenoweth planned a most delightful day at Palm Springs for their house guest, making it strictly a family party. Today they were going to Los Angeles where Mrs. Fletcher was to be complimented at a luncheon. Other friendly gestures of hospitality during her remaining days in the Southland will include a dinner tomorrow night at the Writers' club in Hollywood, with Jane Murfin, noted scenarist and author of "Smilin' Through," as hostess; and a formal dinner to be given Wednesday night in the University club, Los Angeles.

Delightful as these affairs promise to be, they were crowded into the background today when Mrs. Fletcher received a telegram from home announcing that her young son, Stuart Fletcher, had won the competitive examination for Annapolis. He had already won the competitive examination for which Mrs. Florence P. Kahn, California congresswoman had stood sponsor in February, and this completes his achievement. He will go to the naval academy in June for his physical examination.

His talented mother's book based on her travels in Africa, will be brought out in September by the Bobbs-Merrill publishing house, and in the meantime will appear as a serial. This book is a tale of adventure, with an authentic background, and written for older youths and all those who enjoy an excellent adventure tale.

E. W. Spruance of North Ross street, had as week-end guests, Mrs. Ross McIntyre and her mother, Mrs. M. B. Palmer of Coronado. Mrs. McIntyre is visiting with her mother while her husband, Lieutenant Commander McIntyre is on board the U. S. S. Relief in Panama.

FIND HUGE DIAMOND
KIMBERLEY, S. A.—Two prospector partners, Dutoit and Bouche, just back from one of the biggest turned in one of the biggest diamonds ever found in the Litchburg fields. After suffering extreme hardships and hunger they dug the stone after all their food had been consumed.

Pretty Church Wedding Was Orange Event
Of Saturday

Quietly impressive was the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Ruffina Grochow, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Grochow, South Batavia street, Orange, to Cecil Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hanson, 410 South Sycamore street, at the St. John's Lutheran church in Orange Saturday evening. The service was read by the Rev. A. C. Bode, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a frock of turquoise blue crepe and carried an arm bouquet of apricot roses. Her close-fitting hat and other costume accessories were in beige. Miss Hazel Frieden as bridesmaid wearing a frock of orchid crepe and carrying sweet peas. Edward Perry of Santa Ana was best man.

The bride is a graduate of the Santa Ana high school and for the past four years has been employed at the C. A. Pedraja Drug company. The bridegroom has grown to manhood in Santa Ana where he attended the city schools and the Santa Ana high school. For the past several years he has been employed by the L. D. Coffing company and at the present time is manager of the stock department of that concern.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Grochow home. Refreshments were served on individual trays, ices were molded in the form of wedding bells and the elaborately decorated cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The refreshment course was carried out in pink and white.

Apricot gladioli and blue dolphin were attractively combined with breath of heaven in the bouquets about the rooms.

After the reception the young people slipped away and began a motor trip which will take them to Santa Barbara and the northern part of the state. On their return they will establish their home at 912 Kilson Drive. Those bidden to the reception were Mr. and Mrs. L. Hanson, Miss Alice Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Adams Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Adams, Maurice Burns, the Rev. William A. C. Bode, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hurlbert, Long Beach; Lawrence Grochow, Mrs. Albert Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lykee, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hankemeier, H. Paul Norman, Harold Hams, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Haunted House Makes Appropriate Spot

For Gay Affair

Resembling a bit of the French Revolution period transplanted to an abandoned and "haunted house," the initiation ceremonies of the L'Hotel de Rambouillet French club at the Santa Ana junior college held Saturday night more than exceeded expectations of those in charge of the affair.

Sputtering candles, flickering lanterns and flashlights lent a weird and unusual effect to the meeting, which was staged in an old house near Santa Ana. The new members were blindfolded before being taken to the house and again on the way home and are still wondering as to the location of the place.

The main rites were administered by a court, which tried each initiate. All conversation and court procedure was in the French language and the 20 first year "Frenchmen" had an amusing and difficult ordeal in answering the questions and cross examination of the lawyers. Lawrence Haupt took the role of the judge, Miss Velma Bishop, Miss Evelyn Parks, Miss Marie Moog, Julien Leervain and John "Sky" Dunlap were lawyers and Leervain and Dunlap acted as jailers and executioners. All manner of personal and embarrassing questions were put to the prisoners and the sentences ranged from French songs and speeches to imprisonment in The Bastille, (an old musty closet) eating unsavory food and paddling. A paddle was used every time English was spoken.

Miss Evelyn Parks, president of the club, supervised the arrangements for the meeting in conjunction with Miss Lella Watson, faculty adviser. Miss Velma Bishop and Miss Marie Moog were in charge of the refreshments, which consisted of grape punch and doughnuts.

Those who were initiated were the Misses Joy McPhee, Mary Ma-teer, Thelma Glasscock, Helen Campbell, Rosalind Schilling, Allen Adams, Maybelle Ball, Edith Bailey, Mary Iach, Ruth Collins and Messrs. Jack Jacques, Bob Brown, Manfred Mueller, Emory White, Bill Reinhardt, Roy Arms, Glenn Harden, Walter Wilson, William Motley and Harold Stahley. Old members present were the Misses Evelyn Parks, Velma Bishop, Marie Moog, Lella Watson, adviser and Messrs. L. Hauper, John "Sky" Dunlap and Julien Leervain.

Pretty Bridge Party
Held In Gill Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gill entertained at a pretty party Saturday evening when they were hosts in their home, 1021 Oak street. Bridge was played, and with the checking of tallies it was found that Mr. and Mrs. Homer Neer and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Marshall held first and second high honors. Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McClain were consoling.

Late in the evening, the hostess served dainty refreshments to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Neer, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neer, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McClain, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Marshall of Los Angeles.

Many Members Attend Country Club Dance

Numbering among the most enjoyable events of the early spring months have been informal affairs at the Santa Ana Country club, and last night's monthly dance attracted an unusually large crowd. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Townsend.

The Louise Shirley orchestra of Long Beach provided a variety of rhythmic selections for the evening's dancing. A suggestion of the springtime months was found in the bouquets of flowers artistically arranged as a background for the affair.

Westminster

Program Enjoyed

Of unusual interest was the program of the Westminster Missionary society held Wednesday afternoon at the manse with Mrs. Cyril Carter, Mrs. Van Patten, at present of Long Beach Calvary Presbyterian congregation, spoke on her own personal work among the girls of the French colony of 500 on the Island of St. Thomas in the American possessions in the South seas, where her husband was in government service.

A vocal solo was presented by Mrs. A. G. Snow with Mrs. Elizabeth Tenney Wilson as accompanist.

The annual reports of Mrs. O. B. Byram, secretary, and Mrs. J. L. Edwards, treasurer of the local missionary society, were presented as was the report of Mrs. Mary Gran-ay, missionary education secretary.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. W. B. McCoy and Mrs. J. P. Peterson. The following were present: Mrs. Van Patten, Mrs. Mary Grady, Mrs. J. A. Murdy, Mrs. Ella Murdy, Mrs. Beatrice Knapp, Mrs. Joe Walton, Mrs. A. G. Snow, Mrs. Elizabeth Tenney Wilson, Mrs. W. B. McCoy, Mrs. M. J. P. Hill, Mrs. O. B. Byram, Mrs. J. P. Peterson, Mrs. Ella Penhall, Mrs. Cyril Carter.

Rebeka's on Visit

A group of members of the Aloha Rebekah lodge of Westminster moved to Long Beach Tuesday evening at the invitation of Mrs. Frank Henderson, of Midway City, as visitors on friendship night of the Del Mar lodge, of which Mrs. Henderson is a member. Fourteen went to the local lodge and they were entertained royally, the lodge entertaining many of the state officers of the Rebekah lodge as well as the mother of Del Mar lodge, Mrs. Ada Madison, who is now secretary of the Rebekah assembly.

From here were Mrs. Alice Hare, Mrs. India McDaniels, Mrs. Anna Abbott, Mrs. Beatrice Knapp, Mrs. Bertha Schmidt, Miss Ella Murdy, Mrs. Frank Van Uden, Mrs. Robert Talke, Mrs. James Winslow, Mrs. Goble, Miss Ruth Goble, Mr. and Mrs. Hilbourn, Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Laguna Beach

Plan Musical Tea

The musical tea to be given by the Parent-Teacher association is set for March 18 and will combine a St. Patrick's program and party. Hostesses are mothers of the third grade, with Mrs. Peter J. Bushman in charge. The program commenced at 3:30 o'clock. It is to be held in the Josephine Hills studio on Gleneyre street.

The program is more elaborate than is usually given at the monthly musical teas, the party being given in addition. The musical teas have become an important part of the P.-T. A. work.

Birthdays Observed

Curtis and Marie Ware were given a birthday party recently by their mother, Mrs. C. Ware, and Mrs. Kenneth Williamson. Ice cream, chocolate hearts and lemonade, with the large birthday cakes trimmed in white and candles, were made by Mrs. Williamson. After the refreshments, the many pretty presents given them by the guests were opened by Marie and Curtis. Later the little folks played games.

Those who were present were Dale Seeman, Roberta Waldon, Barbara Reed, Patricia Stover, Austin Murphy, Roy Seeman, Barbara Martin, Richard Stover, Jackie Dent, Parkin Cosby, Billy Dent, Marjorie Babcock, Doris Martin, Marie Ware, Curtis Ware, Mrs. Harold Stover, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Ware.

Entertains Friends

Mrs. Hortense Rawn entertained a number of friends at tea given informally Tuesday afternoon. Guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Hinchman, Orville S. Allen, who is a brother of Mrs. Hinchman, Mrs. James A. Irons, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Crosby, and Mrs. D. Smith.

Bridge Enjoyed

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Hall were hosts at the bridge party given at the Community playhouse Monday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Harry Armstrong and Charles H. Jester.

Others who were present were Mrs. Charles Jester, Hugo Lindberg, Mrs. Carl Benson, Mrs. Perry Warren, Mrs. Nora Heppenstall, Miss Edith Housnell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Royster Helm, Guy Bishop, Miss Mary Gray, Major F. N. Cosby, S. W. Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Mathews, Mrs. Barbara Cope, Harry Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Anderson, Ada B. Miller, Miss Rosemary Sheehan and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Copley.

ANN MEREDITH'S MIXING BOWL

A House Vs. a Home

A writer on etiquette says that a "house" and a "home" are two entirely different things. The first means a domicile—the roof that covers you; the second means that intangible something with which the family unit vitalizes the inanimate house into the living, breathing place called Home.

In these perilous business days the duty of making houses into homes and keeping up the morale of those who earn, falls upon the shoulders of the wife. I think that Carl Laemmle, pioneer motion picture producer, hits the nail square on the head in what he has to say about it.

"I've watched men succeed, and I've watched them fail, and I want to say that the fellow with a wife who runs her home smoothly and economically isn't often the one who goes under. Nothing helps towards a man's success like freedom from domestic worries—the freedom that only a wife's good management can give. Back of most successful men you'll find a successful wife, a wife who buys and spends like the expert manager she is."

TODAY'S RECIPE

Prune Bran Bread

1 cup cooking bran
1 cup white flour
3/4 cup sour milk mixed with 1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 egg well beaten
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter
1/2 cup cooked prune pulp.
In a mixing bowl put the unbeaten egg, brown sugar and salt, and beat well. To the sour milk add the soda and stir until it foams. Measure the flour before sifting, sift with baking powder, twice, then mix with the cup of bran. So much for preparation.

Mix the prepared flour and milk into the beaten egg mixture, using them alternately so that the batter is kept smooth and the soda and baking powder will be distributed evenly through the batter. Last of all, add the melted butter, stoned and cut to pieces. Turn into a buttered, deep bread tin, and bake until the bread shrinks from the edge of the pan. Oven should be hot enough to raise the loaf to start, then reduce to finish baking.

This loaf is not only delicious, but it is good for the whole family. The calories total almost 1600 in this loaf, that would be about 100 calories for a thin slice. In this instance the energy units are of less importance than the vitamins and mineral elements in the loaf.

"Meat Substitutes"

How interesting that sounds to the housewife who has her problems during Lent. It is the title of this week's leaflet, giving recipes for such tasty dishes as "Savory Eggs," "Crab Meat Chowder," "Carrot and Peanut Loaf" and many others. Just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and it will be mailed you promptly.

tuned as children of ages from six months to six years.

When Ann Boardman arrived at the home of Mrs. Kissell no sign of a party was to be found. The surprise was complete. Mrs. Kissell in the costume of a nurse, ushered in the guests, who turned out to be Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pierce, Eric St. Clair, Mrs. Kissell Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Dillwyn Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whipple, George Dunham, Mrs. Frank Arden, Miss Adele Boardman, Samuel Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Dietrick Dietrickson and Deaconess Ethel Percy.

Cold in Head, Chest or Throat?

RUB Musterole well into your chest and throat—almost instantly you feel easier. Repeat the Musterole rub once an hour for five hours... what a glorious relief!

Those good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor—are mixed with other valuable ingredients in Musterole to make it what doctors call a "counter-irritant" because it gets action and is not just a salve. It penetrates and stimulates blood circulation and helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. Keep Musterole handy—jars, tubes. All druggists.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Deputies Supervise Valencia Grove Organization

Mrs. Ora Ward and Mrs. Grace Peterson of Southgate, deputies of the Woodmen's circle, were instrumental in the organization of a Santa Ana division, Valencia grove of the Woodmen's circle, effected Friday in the home of Mrs. Frank Hall on East Tenth street.

During the business meeting of officers were elected. Those chosen were Grace Hall, past guardian; Gladys McDonald, guardian; Jewel Jamison, vice guardian; Bertha Thorpe, inside sentinel; Nellie Dunstan, outside sentinel; Rebecca Baler, musician; Florence Mackel, secretary; Florence Merriman, banker; Irene Gibson and Mrs. Townsend, auditors; Mrs. Esther Jamison, first attendant and Irene Caldwell, second attendant.

Late in the afternoon, the hostess served refreshments of ice cream and cake. The next meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, March 17, at which time luncheon will be served in the home of Mrs. Gladys McDonald in Orange.

Fullerton

Nurses Entertained

The first social affair to be given in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stedman, 438 West Malvern, was the evening of bridge Tuesday night to which were bidden nurses of the Fullerton General hospital, with whom Mrs. Stedman formerly worked.

The home was decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Esther Gale, of Brea, Miss Selma Poetz, of Anaheim, and Miss M. Whitney, Fullerton, consolation. Miss Emma Steve, sister of the hostess, assisted in serving a two-course luncheon at the close of the play.

Other guests were Mrs. Gladys Petmecky, Mrs. Paul Shanes, Mrs. Florine Langworthy, Miss Julia Keithly, Miss Edna Woods, Miss Mabel Norris, Miss Anna Kippen, Miss Stella Hickson, Miss Annie Chambers; Miss Tillie Morningstar, Miss Florence Hahn, Miss Eleanor Frazer, Miss Clara Cornwell, Miss Ethel Blakely, Miss Ada Waters, Miss Patricia Stewart, Miss Dora Nell Adams and Miss Ellen Smith.

Church Societies

Jubilee Circle

With members of the Jubilee circle of Spurgeon Memorial church as hostesses, Missionary societies met in the church Friday afternoon to hear talks by Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Lightfoot and Mrs. Stentz from the Los Angeles Trinity church, "Prayer" and "Organization of Prayer Circles" were the topics.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. T. J. Hunter, president, and following the business session light refreshments were served by Mrs. Nat Travis and Mrs. Johnson.

'FOR THE DEFENSE' AT WALKER STATE

William Powell, that suave cosmopolitan who has probably done as much as any favorite actor you can name toward stirring up the hates and sympathies of America's millions of movie-goers, is enacting another of his superb roles at Walker's theater, in "For the Defense."

"For the Defense" is a story that deals with a phase of metropolitan life with which everyone is familiar. Powell is seen as a phenomenally successful lawyer, who defends doubtful persons from the machinery of the law, and who wins case after case in spite of the suspicions leveled against him by the Bar Association and the Police Department.

UNIFORMS ARE NIGHTGOWNS
Something new in the matter of lightweight basketball uniforms was tried out in Reno, Nev., recently, when, at a charity game between the Sparks Lions club and the Volunteer Firemen, one team appeared in lingerie, the other in night-gowns.

AT WEST COAST TODAY

Marie Dressler, who with Polly Moran, star in "Caught Short" which will be seen as a "revival" at the Fox West Coast theater tonight. The regular picture on the program is "The Naughty Flirt," with Alice White.

'SIT TIGHT' AT FOX BROADWAY IS WELL LIKED

If any doubts have existed as to whether Winnie Lightner and Joe E. Brown are the funniest people in the talkies, it is dispelled by "Sit Tight," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone production which opened at the Fox Broadway theater last night.

Winnie appears as hard-boiled Dr. O'Neil, owner of a health institute where the patients, male and female, are pounded, stretched, steamed, psycho-analyzed, and otherwise maltreated, in an effort to become the Venuses and Adonises that nature evidently didn't intend them to be. Dr. O'Neil is also interested in the fight game, and hopes to discover and develop champion material in the course of her work.

Joe E. Brown is her doubtful assistant who calls himself Jojo the Tiger, and brags without end of the pugs he has knocked out and the medals he has won. Jojo has an eye for feminine charms, and causes streaming roughhouse among the lady patients. Winnie is compelled to resort to her most hard-swallowing tactics to keep him in proper submission.

In the same building with the "Health Institute" is the office of millionaire Dunlap (played by Hobart Bosworth) who has a pretty daughter, Sally, captivatively portrayed by Claudia Dell. Sally secures a better job for her lover, Tom Weston (Paul Gregory) and quarrels with him when he refuses to take what he has not earned. As Tom leaves, Winnie corners him, recognizes in his husky build the white hope for which she has been looking and employs him on the spot. He makes good after a series of adventures bringing the picture to the ending any audience would want to see.

"CAUGHT SHORT" AT WEST COAST TODAY

"Caught Short," comedy featuring Polly Moran and Marie Dressler, is the "revival" at the Fox West Coast theater today, showing only one time, between the first and second performances of the regular feature, "The Naughty Flirt."

The screaming comedy, based on the stock market crash, shows Dressler and Moran as boarding house keepers in New York. Polly invests her money in "the street" and Marie is "foolish" enough to place hers in a bank. When the crash comes, things begin to happen in the boarding houses of the two, making the picture one of the funniest the talking screen has ever produced.

Alice White is seen in her most dramatic role in "The Naughty Flirt." The little blonde star plays the role of a wealthy young de-butante who spends her time in search of a thrill. Her quest leads her into all kinds of situations which include a session in night court, ride in a police wagon, a balcony love scene and a midnight elopement.

Paul Page has the male lead.

One hammerhead began to scold. Said Scouty, "It thinks we're too bold. Or maybe it's afraid that we will harm its little nest. Now, wouldn't that be mean of us? No wonder it makes such a fuss. Let's leave the little birds alone. I think that would be best."

"You're right," the Travel Man replied. And then he stepped to Scouty's side and gently slapped him on the back. "I like good boys," said he. "Most boys would try to scare those birds by shouting lots of crazy words, but you prefer to leave them. You are kind as you can be."

"And now let's drive to Durban. We are bound to find new sights to see. It isn't very far from here and, if we have good luck we'll get there ere the day is gone and then we'll sleep until the dawn." The Tinymites agreed to this and all hopped on their truck. Away they went, in spirits high. Some pretty scenery drifted by and now and then they'd pass a native who would wave his hand. "They are all friendly over here," said Coppy. "There is naught to fear. Why, everybody we have met has treated us just grand."

They reached the town of Durban soon and shortly, "neath a brilliant moon, sat down, out in the open, and enjoyed a wondrous meal. Within a big hotel they slept. At dawn right out of bed they crept and Carpy, as he washed himself, said, "Gee, how good I feel!"

Right after breakfast they all went out to a dairy farm and spent an hour or so at looking 'round. There was a lot to see. Said Scouty, "Gee, do they make cheese? And, could we have some, if you please?" The Travel Man said, "I'll find out. Come on, boys, follow me!"

RULES:

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

Huntington Beach Well In New Oil Sand At 7400 Feet

GAS PRESSURE STRONG: TESTS PLANNED SOON

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 16.—The McCaslin well, drilling at Olive and Twenty-first streets, has encountered a new sand below 7400 feet. There is a strong gas pressure and it is estimated that the well will be able to drill about 50 feet deeper into the sand and will then be able to bring in a good well. It is estimated the production test will be made within the next two weeks.

Considerable excitement and keen interest is being manifested by major oil companies and independents in the new discovery at the McCaslin well. It is the general opinion that a big well, possibly 5000 to 10,000 will be brought in, although a few regard such estimates at this time as optimistic.

It is reported here that the Standard oil field workers will be put back on full time within the next two or three weeks. Richfield employees are also hopeful of getting back to work on full time within the next 30 to 60 days.

Leasing is active in the field, even the extreme east side area getting some small play on account of the deep sand prospects. The entire Huntington Beach mesa is getting in on the oil play, which as yet is not of boom proportions.

HOLD FUNERAL OF ACCIDENT VICTIM

ANAHEIM, March 16.—A verdict of unavoidable and accidental death was given at an inquest conducted Saturday afternoon by Coroner Charles Brown over the body of Rudy Carrisoa, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carrisoa, 211 West Chestnut street, Anaheim. The boy died Friday night from injuries sustained when a laundry truck driven by George N. Raines, 18, 217 West Elm street, Anaheim, ran him down.

The accident occurred Thursday at 1 p. m. on Oak street. According to witnesses Raines was not to blame for running over the boy, as it was claimed that he was driving at a legal rate of speed and that the boy suddenly ran out from behind another truck in front of the one driven by Raines.

Witnesses to the accident were C. W. Hill, 910 West Center street, Anaheim, and M. A. Gorton, 3544 South Harrison street, Arlington.

Funeral services for the boy were held this morning from the family home on West Chestnut street. The services and interment in the Holy Cross cemetery were in charge of the Backs, Terry and Campbell Funeral home.

ROADS BEFORE COAST BODY ON TUESDAY NIGHT

NEWPORT BEACH, March 16.—A large attendance from the harbor district is expected at the Newport harbor union high school here tomorrow evening, for the monthly meeting of the Orange County Coast association, when roads will be the chief topic of discussion.

S. V. Cortelyou, division engineer of the state highway commission, will be the chief speaker, and he is scheduled to tell of the plans of the state department for highway improvements in this section.

The plans include a new bridge across the upper bay. According to a notice received by the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, this bridge will be about 700 feet south of the present structure. It will have a removable span affording 40 feet of clear width of channel and a clear height of 13 feet at mean low water, with 12.9 feet at mean high tide. The bridge will have an over-all width of 50 feet, and the traffic portion will be about 40 feet wide.

The Coast highway will be widened and straightened between the Arches crossing and Corona del Mar, and eventually widened all the way to San Diego. It has already been widened from Long Beach to Newport Beach, except two stretches in Huntington Beach, plans for the widening of which are under way, and the bridge over the Santa Ana river between here and Huntington Beach, for which there is $30,000 in the new state budget.

The legislative committee of the association is scheduled to report on several bills now before the lawmakers at Sacramento, particularly affecting this coast section, which they have studied.

Arrangements for the dinner, which will open the meeting at 6:30 o'clock in the new high school dining room, are in charge of Dr. C. G. Huston, president of the Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce, and G. C. Macleod, secretary of the Newport Harbor chamber.

EXPERIENCE OF GOD SUBJECT IN FULLERTON

FULLERTON, March 16.—"One of our needs in modern life is to be awakened by silence to listen to God," Rev. Graham C. Hunter told members of the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. His subject was "Towards a Deeper Understanding of God." The Rev. Mr. Hunter said in part:

"Many people today, like those in Ephesus for whom the Fourth Gospel was written, are asking 'How are we to make these queer strange lives of ours significant? How are we to make the contact between our dreams, hopes, gropings, on the one hand, and the bread and butter realities of tomorrow on the other? How are we to have power in our lives?'"

The Fourth Gospel gives an answer which hundreds of generations have found helpful, that God is about us like the air. "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof but canst not tell whence it cometh and whither it goeth; and the Spirit of God is like that. He is always around us, our breath, our life."

"When we breathe in this divine air, God enters into our lives and causes us to be born anew into a new and larger life. Closer to Him than breathing, and nearer than hands and feet. God is much more than the air; the air is not personal; the air does not know the difference between right and wrong. Yet this teaching of St. John's gospel may help clear up our ideas about God."

"Some people think of God as a queer sort of machine, a sort of calendar, who makes a lot of certain outward forms, who has wound the world up so that it will set date on the calendar. It will explode and bring on another war, which they do not seem to think of Him as anxious to prevent. People get strange ideas of God if they fail to read their Bibles spiritually and take the Gospels materialistically or literally."

There is a lot of difference between taking Jesus seriously and taking Him literally. The latter kills; the Spirit giveth life. As if God would put an outward form ahead of that which He most desires, mercy and justice and faithfulness. As if our Father were not always pleading with His children to make peace, not to kill and hate. But this chapter of St. John tells us about us like the atmosphere, seeking entrance into our lives as the Spirit of love."

"Many other people think of the way to make life effective is to give the profit motive free play. That is an inferior idea to the crudest literalism of modern realists. Literalism is thin but materialism is far worse. But St. John's gospel in this story of Nicodemus coming to Jesus tells that the way to enter into life is to be born anew into unselfish living, into usefulness, into obligation to society, not into eagerness to grab and hold for oneself."

"Experience of God is a way to integrate our personalities. Religion makes people creative; it gives an original and independent outlook on life."

Arrangements were made for an afternoon and evening beach party to be held during the Easter vacation, the exact date to be named later. Those present at last night's meeting were the Misses Grace Peterson, Lucille Steck, Jean King, Roslyn Almond, Margaret Willett, Mary Jean Mason, Naomi Knox, Nancy Holt, Ellen McFadden, Lyla Ruth Allen, Jeanette Kessel, Dorothy Dodge, Virginia McClellan and Doris McCurtury and the Messrs. Grave Digger Haunted By Indians

MIDWAY CITY, March 16.—A hunt for Indian skeletons is going on at Midway City, a mound of graves having been discovered by a Los Angeles Mexican, who comes down from the city to unearth them for sale, via a pot of gold buried with them being the main incentive.

The graveyard is located on the John Edwards ranch, one half mile west of Midway City, just west of the Southern Pacific railroad tracks, where a sand ridge is found to contain the skeletons at a depth of not more than three feet.

A number of the skeletons have been taken out by the grave digger but whether he will continue or not is problematical. He declared that the "spirits" of the departed Indians are haunting him, disturbing his nightly dreams and causing his arid in grave hunting to cool somewhat.

NEW OFFICERS SELECTED FOR MESA LEAGUE

COSTA MESA, March 16.—The Intermediate leagues of the Community church at their regular weekly meeting last night reorganized for the year. An entirely new set of officers excepting the secretary-treasurer, Miss Virginia McClellan, was elected. Miss Virginia McClellan was unanimously elected president; Miss Dorothy Dodge, first vice president; Willet Sneve, second vice president; William Simmons, third vice president; Miss Evelyn Rollins, fourth vice president.

Miss Helen Fuller is the retiring president. Other officers and several committees will be appointed at the first regular meeting of the new cabinet. The new officers will be sworn into office before the altar in the main auditorium of the church next Sunday morning. Mrs. Doris McCurtury will serve the organization as pianist for the year.

Arrangements were made for an afternoon and evening beach party to be held during the Easter vacation, the exact date to be named later. TALBERT

TALBERT, March 16.—The new modern garage and service station belonging to Donald Harper is all but completed and work will begin immediately on the entrance drives and other outside details of the new business. The property will be entirely completed before Harper will move from his present location. Fourteen men have been employed on the building, the greater part of the time since the work commenced.

Miss Lucille Giesler celebrated her twenty-first birthday anniversary on Tuesday and in observance of the event a group gathered at the home of her brother, Tom Giesler, and wife for a social time. The evening was spent at cards. Refreshments were served, the lovely birthday cake being made by Miss Fay Bushard. Prizes for the evening were won, first by Miss Giesler, and consolation by Wilbur Griffin.

Those forming the party were the honor guest, Miss Giesler; Miss Fay Bushard and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Giesler, of Talbert; Wilbur Griffin, of Midway City; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hodges, of Santa Ana.

The regular monthly meeting of the Talbert and Greenville Missionary society will be held next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Anna Kuffel near Santa Ana. A potluck dinner will be held and another quilt will be started and other sewing done.

Pillars of the Church

(Read Luke 15:25-32. Text, Luke 15:31.)

Son, Thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.
This elder brother has been sadly abused. It is true that he betrayed some faults of temper.
Good people are not always as amiable as they might be. And the elder brother was a good man. He stayed at home and worked hard to keep things going while his brother was wasting his substance with riotous living. Such men are pillars of society, and of the church. They are a reliable asset while the prodigals are a liability. It is well enough that we see their faults for our own self-correction; let us not miss their superb virtues. And they will have their reward. In the parable the returned prodigal got a welcome and a feast; but the elder brother got a commendation and inherited the estate. These steady, stay-at-home folks are the great people after all.
PRAYER: Our Heavenly Father, whose promises are to those who walk uprightly; we thank thee for faithful men and devoted women; and we pray that thou wilt guide us to become of their company. In Jesus' name. Amen.

COMMENDATION FOR MR. CRAIG

Saturday's Register carried the announcement from Assemblyman Edward Craig that before he would favor the adoption of the Water District bill that was introduced by him, it must have certain changes.

He said that the cities which are now in the Metropolitan Water District must be eliminated from the bill, and that the bill should provide for the withdrawal of any city in the future if it joined the Metropolitan Water District; that there should be a change in the percentage of voters required for bond issues from a majority to two-thirds, and that it should conform to the provisions of the Orange County Flood Control and Water District in requiring four instead of three of the Board of Supervisors before a bond election could be voted. He suggested that there were other minor changes that might be necessary.

We want to congratulate Mr. Craig on the position which he has assumed upon this measure. Few things could be more absurd than the thought of placing cities in a water district for which they have made no application, and to which, as a matter of fact, their boards of trustees have protested.

We doubt seriously if any member of the board of trustees of any one of the three cities which are now in the Metropolitan Water District knew anything about this bill which made them a part of a new water district until it had already been introduced into the Legislature.
No one is criticizing Mr. Craig for introducing the bill; it had to be introduced in that period of time or no opportunity would be given later, and this was a mere formal act. Whatever may be said for and against the bill, there is certainly no need for the municipalities to be a part of any such water district, and Mr. Craig's position upon this shows an understanding of the situation.

In declaring himself for the two-thirds rather than a majority vote for the issuance of bonds, he is again on solid ground, as far as the general public is concerned. If exceptions are to be constantly made to the general rule; change the rule, but there are special reasons in this state why this two-thirds rule for bond issues should prevail. There are thousands of people constantly coming into the state who are unfamiliar with conditions, and who, for the time being at least, have no property interest in the state, and bonds are a mortgage. They last for many years, and pretty serious consideration should be given to the question of mortgaging property when the mortgage lasts so long.

Again, it is well that four of the supervisors shall act rather than leaving it to three on such important matters as this. Mr. Craig shows commendable judgment in the position he has assumed. There certainly was no general demand for or even knowledge of this bill, and it is so important that it certainly should require a great deal more consideration than is available in point of time between now and the close of the Legislature. Nothing would be lost by postponing action on such an important measure as this until the clouds are entirely cleared away.

INDIA WOMEN IN THE RING

A strang piece of news has come from India.
It is that two prominent Indian society women engaged in a fierce six-round prize fight.
The two women, Mrs. Kamalaba of Matabar, and Miss Sitabai of Tanjore. "Mrs. Kamalaba," says the report, "amid cheers of her supporters, sent her opponent, Miss Sitabai to the floor with a terrific uppercut in the sixth round."

Just last week a native of India, speaking in Santa Ana, called attention to the sacrifice of the women in sharing the labors of the Nationalists in India, because it was a real hardship for them to leave their retirement. Thousands of them have picketed shops where liquor and drugs are sold, cutting down Great Britain's income from these two sources, and saving people from the liquor and drug habit. That campaign, said the speaker, cost the women an extensive effort on the part of the women to overcome generations of retirement. And now we read of two of them engaging in a prize fight!
It is a characteristic of human nature that when once barriers to which one has long been accustomed are removed, with some people all restraint is gone. Having been released from "Purdah" some of the women of India seem to be going to an extreme. There are so many things to do with freedom that are infinitely better than fighting.

RIVALS FOR RENO

Reno, Nevada, has had a great industry in the divorce business. By making a 90-day residence requirement for divorce proceedings, it has become a veritable Mecca for those seeking freedom from their marital troubles in the whole United States. Now Boise, Idaho, and Rock Springs, Arkansas, have been making a bid for that business, by reducing the time requirement. Reno is alarmed, and is urgently requesting a new law requiring only a three weeks' stay.

This is not an edifying spectacle. It may run into the absurdity of giving a divorce for a cash down payment, with a premium for second or third comers. The whole sad business calls for a national divorce law. States like New York and South Carolina have laws that are too rigid. New York gives a divorce only for adultery. South Carolina has no divorce law at all. An act of the State Legislature is required. From these extremes to the other extreme of Reno, there ought to be a sane law. In spite of our contempt for the divorce laws of Soviet Russia, it should be known that Russia has not yet begun to have the large percentage of divorces to marriages that we have. Our last statistics show one divorce for every six marriages. According to a statement made by the Soviet government, there is one divorce for eight marriages.

WHERE EDUCATORS STAND ON PROHIBITION

With but one dissenting vote, the Superintendents' Department of the National Education Association, at its recent annual meeting in Detroit, voted for the retention of the Eighteenth Amendment. Only one educator, the Superintendent of Schools from Hoboken, N. J., stood up and advocated repeal, and he was listened to with the greatest impatience, so pronounced were the Superintendents for the retention of the amendment.

It is somewhat significant that practically all the educators of the country and all the social workers of the country are in favor of prohibition. The former have seen the effects of the liquor traffic upon children, while the latter have seen its effect not only upon the children of the poor, but also upon those groups of unfortunates among whom most of their work is carried on.

These are the people who know. Their interest in the welfare of humanity needs no comment. It is not sentiment or narrowness with them. They have seen the change effected by prohibition, and they dread the return of the legalized liquor traffic.

Women, "Buy Now!" Help Situation

Passions Star-News
Women hold the key to the economic situation.
They can hasten the return to economic normal.
They can hurry the return of prosperity. And this is how they can do it—they can put an end to the so-called "buyers' strike." They do the bulk of the buying throughout the nation. Economists estimate that women buy all the way from 75 to 85 per cent of all that is bought in this country. And everybody knows that even the other small percentage of buying, which is done by men, is influenced largely by the women.

So here is the key to the economic situation, the solution to the most harassing problem of the day —get women into the notion of buying up to normal, and beginning to do this right away, and the times surely would be better right away. This applies, of course, to those women who are so circumstantially financially that they can afford to buy.
The woman who is out of work herself, and who must depend upon her own work to provide her sustenance; or the woman whose husband is out of work, of course cannot buy up to normal. But the vast numbers of women who have comfortable or abundant means at their disposal—they can buy and buy liberally. They can contribute greatly toward the return of prosperity by liberalizing the volume of their shopping. Upon them the country must depend, in large measure, for promoting thriving by breaking the "buyers' strike," by forgetting economic depression, by lifting the depression through buying as in normal times. Buying as in normal times soon would make times normal.

Rhod Island Reds Repudiated?

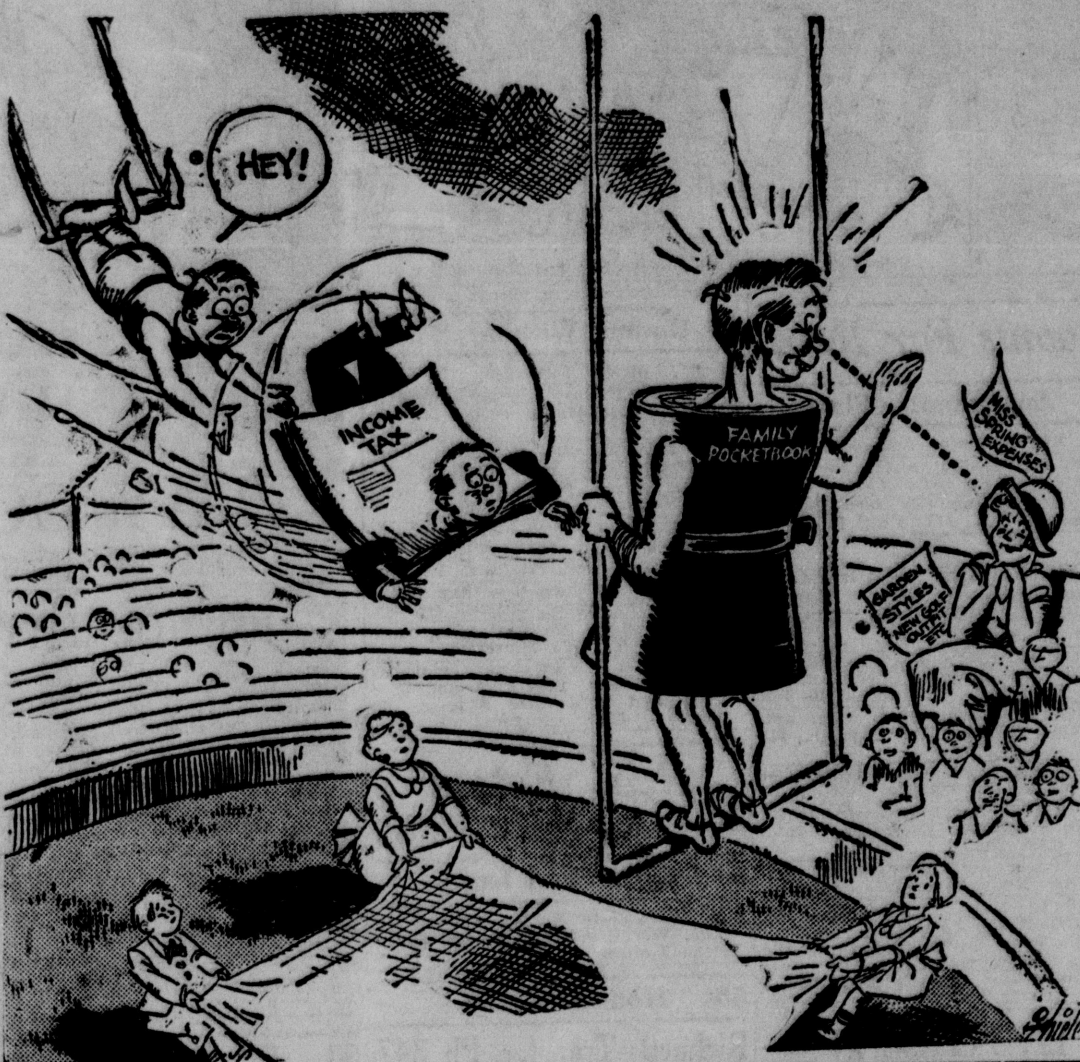

Christian Science Monitor
Is the bird that made Rhode Island famous to be repudiated by its own state? Recent news dispatches indicate that the Rhode Island Red hen was not even an "also ran" in the list of birds to receive consideration as a possible "state bird." A state-wide vote of the schools, parent-teacher associations, granges and other organizations gave the quail a strong lead over the osprey, the song sparrow, the tree swallow, the catbird and the flicker. Fifty thousand votes in all, and apparently not one, not even an "honorable mention," for the "little red hen."

For years the Rhode Island Red has been conducting a free publicity bureau for the state. From one end of the world to the other it has carried the banner of Rhode Island. It has captured egg-laying contests from Los Angeles to London. Its "cut-cut-cut-cudarkul" has carried the message of Rhode Island into many countries. To be sure, Rhode Island has not been altogether unappreciative. Two of its towns have erected memorials to the distinguished hen, and at one time it was proposed to reproduce a Rhode Island Red rooster on the state's automobile plates. But surely the "little red hen" has been overlooked in the selection of a "state bird." Could it have been that there was some political apprehension of the official choice, "biddy" will remain Rhode Island's bird.

Old Saw Too Often a Snare and a Delusion

San Francisco Chronicle
The chief fault to find with Professor J. G. Jenkins, experimental psychologist at Cornell, is that his discovery about the uselessness of old saws came a little too late to be of any help. Without professing psychology, experimental or otherwise, one learns through bitter experience that the adage
"Practice makes perfect" is a delusion and a snare.
The professor cites the dumb golfer who merely gets worse and worse the more he practices his shots. An even more forcible example which Dr.
Jenkins overlooks is the poker optimist who spends his nights trying to fill a straight in the middle.
One never gets the hang of it no matter how much he practices.

BAD NEWS

The sun is losing in its weight,
A great astronomer has reckoned
At what would seem a frightful rate—
Four hundred million tons a second.
Although I lack the lore to be
In touch with scientific thinking,
Four hundred million tons to me
Seems quite a risky bit of shrinking.
Each day I view the shining sphere
And shudder with a lively fear.

Though still it sails aloof, sublime,
If this tremendous rate increases
Unfaltering, in course of time
This sun of ours will go to pieces.
And when it's withered to a char
By this gargantuan subsidence
Wherever we shall find a star
To give us light and heat and guidance.
How can our solar system run
With nothing but a peewee sun?

I thought the sun was fixed in space,
So I can only grope and stumble
In picturing what may take place
When it begins to shred and crumble.
If we were in another world
I certainly should feel far safer,
For into chaos we'd be hurled
When ours is wasted to a wafer.
Yet life is, after all, like that.
Our hopes are swiftly busted flat.

The Bonus Bill Smoke Screen

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

The smoke screen which both sides threw over the bonus question has partly cleared away. Now we can begin to see the real issue.

It was nonsense to contend that a million ex-soldiers had a right to make a sudden raid on the Treasury, because a small portion of them were in want.

It was just as absurd to contend that raising the necessary funds would strain the banking resources of the country, and cause bank failures. Banks never fail because they buy the best securities in the world, or lend money upon them. And United States bonds are the best securities in the world.

The two great epidemics of bank failures in the last forty years have coincided with the two great periods of monetary deflation. But the Bonus Bill, even in the opinion of its opponents, is a measure of INFLATION. And inflation is precisely what the United States needs.

That brings us through the smoke screen to the real issue.
For nearly two years, those in effective control of the banks and the Treasury have pursued a determined policy of deflation.
This has thrown several million men out of work, as it always does. There is no mystery about it. Business cannot prosper when money is being driven out of circulation.

The bonus-cashing campaign is the first organized offensive against the deflationists. It is a demand for more bank credit money in circulation than business—in a depression—seems to kind of inflation.

The greater the depression, the greater the need for that kind of inflation.

There are far better ways of filling this need—as "The Business Week" says—than by a battalion of doughboys, whether armed with bayonets or with ballots. But it is better to expand the bank credit money in circulation promptly by the bonuscashing method than not to expand it at all.

Pop was looking at the Sunday paper and throwing parts of it on the floor when he didn't know what he was doing with them, and he started to pick them up and pile them neat on the table, saying, "My more orderly than you men, the world would soon sink back into its original state of primitive kayos."

But on the other hand if we men didn't go to the trouble to make a little disorder once in a while, you wimmin would be forced to make it yourselves in order to have something to put in order, not that I expect any gratitude, pop sed.

And he kept on looking at the pen out of my bag, there it is rite at your elbow, she sed.

Any moment now, pop sed. And he opened ma's bag and looked in it, saying, "Yee gods such a bunch of junk, was anybody around here tawking about being orderly?"

Everything in that bag has a necessary purpose, so kindly hand me my silver fountain pen, ma sed.
Ill have to locate it ferst, and then
Ill have to excavate it, pop sed.

What are you saving this bunch of old lottery tickets for? That thing expired months ago, didn't it? he sed, and ma sed, Yes, you can take those out if you want to.

Thanks, I'd just love to, pop sed.
And he took them out and threw them in the wast basket, saying, Here's 2 receipts for registered letters, are they any good to you?

No, their things of the passed, I do even remember what letters they were, ma sed, and pop sed,
Very orderly indeed, congratulations.
How many lipsticks do you need to feel well dressed— I've arum across 3 to 4 so far, in various stages of decomposition, he sed, and ma sed, Are you going to hand me my silver fountain pen or are you going to keep chattering and chattering?

Im still exploring for it, pop sed.
Do you suppose it could be under this orderly mass of loose postage stamps and visiting cards and small change? he sed, and ma sed, O give me that, if thats all the help you can be.

And she quick got up and took her bag from him mad and per-tended not to hear him laffing for about the next 5 minnits.

A little group of girls taking nurses' training were pleasantly entertained last evening when Miss Rose Lieberman was hostess in her home on Spurgeon street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boose's thirtieth wedding anniversary was celebrated last evening when a group of friends arrived at their home to surprise them.

Mrs. A. J. Crookshank conducted a n interesting round table discussion at the meeting of the Intermediate school F.T. A. held yesterday.

The first public entertainment to be held in the new banquet hall of the remodeled Elks' building occurred yesterday evening when a box social was held. Light refreshments were served by Miss Margaret Lyon, Miss Christine
Watson and Miss Ardis Burns.

Little Miss Isabelle Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, celebrated her birthday yesterday afternoon in her home on East Chestnut avenue.

FLEXIBLE UNIVERSITIES

Last week I referred to the fact that at this season when state legislatures are discussing and determining appropriations for state universities, it is a good thing, alike for states and for their universities, to consider just what a state has the right to expect from its university.

I listed seven things that, in my judgment, a state has the right to expect from its university, and today I want to discuss one of these things, namely, that a state has the right to expect that its university shall be flexible rather than fixed in its program, its procedures, and its personnel.

As far as self-criticism goes, the state universities, along with the private universities, cannot be convicted of dogmatic fixity.

There has never been greater flood of self-assessment than now among universities.

No one is freer than the professor in criticizing the program and procedures of the university.

There is little of smug complacency in the informal educational discussion in the lounge rooms of faculty clubs.

The educational journals are educational confessionals in which the educators admit their sins.

There is enough in the way of proved experimental results and richly detailed planning, that today lies unused in academic files, to effect a sweeping and salutary reconstruction of higher education throughout America.

But educational reform, as far as universities are concerned, is, in large measure, evaporating in discussion.

Universities are flexible in discussion, but fixed in diagram;
they hug their ancient blue prints with a certain wild affection.

At the first breath of basic reform all the vested interests of the university system huddle together defensively.

After the freest of free discussion, a kind of paralysis falls upon faculties and administrators when the hour strikes to make the changes that responsible investigation suggests should be made.

Universities exhort all men to apply the scientific spirit to the affairs of their time, but persistently refuse to apply the scientific spirit to their traditional procedures.

This fixity that universities display towards their curricula and teaching procedures would, if tolerated in a great industry, spell bankruptcy.

A state has every right to expect that its university shall practice as well as preach the scientific spirit.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI
NOBODY LIKES ME

"Nobody likes me. I'm not going to go to school any more."
"Why, Mollie. What a thing to say."

"I don't care. It's true."

"Why don't they like you?"

"I don't know. They never ask me to play with them. They go off by themselves and talk and if I go over to them they tell me to go away."

"But don't you ever play with them?"

"When I do they fight with me.
I try to tell them how to do things and they get mad and walk off."

"Why don't you just play. Not bother whether they do it right or not?"

"If they do it wrong? Am I going to let them do it wrong?"

Mollie managed to go through the grade school and enter high school. Here as before, "Nobody likes me." The teachers were mean.
They gave her bad marks. "Just because," They always gave her the back seat and somebody else the front seat. The girls were mean, too. They wouldn't let her have an office in any society. Voted against her if she was nominated. Didn't invite her to the parties. And the boys were just as bad.

After many scenes and arguments and bickerings Mollie was graduated from high school and got a position in an office. Again,
"Nobody likes me. I'm telling them to go right and they won't listen to me and they're jealous." Soon the complaint extended to the boss.

"He doesn't like me. Never looks at me. WHY doesn't he like me?"
other and always she wailed "Nobody likes me."

"Well," said her Aunt Jane one day, briskly as a clear-eyed Aunt would say it, "I can't say as I blame them."

"Why, the idea, Aunt Jane. What do you mean you don't blame them? Am I not as good as anybody?"

"Not by a long way. You are so busy thinking about yourself that you never have time for anything else. You don't do anything for anybody but yourself. You don't see anybody but yourself. I should think that you'd be so tired of yourself that you'd be glad to look at somebody else once in a while."

"You haven't helped your mother a particle since the day you were born. I blame her for that. She ought to have made you help. You expect everybody to wait on you."

You expect everybody to stand aside for you. You think that you are so bright and so handsome that the world should stop to aslute you. Now that you know the world will not I should think you'd get busy and hate yourself."

It came so hard and so fast, with such unexpectedness, that it penetrated the crust of selfishness that had formed about the girl's personality and she wept as she had not wept in years. Sincerely, It took a few years of effort aided by a trained teacher to help her out of her predicament, but she got out.

This "Nobody likes me," has a meaning of its own.

MADISON'S BIRTH

On March 16, 1751, James Madison, fourth president of the United States, was born at Port Conway, Va.

After graduating from Princeton at the age of 20, he studied law.
Five years later he entered politics by becoming a member of the Virginia convention, and, though too modest for an orator, he became one of the most eminent, accomplished and respected of American statesmen.

As a member of the convention of 1787, which framed the Federal Constitution, Madison took complete notes in shorthand, thus producing the only record of its proceedings and debates. In 1792 he became the leader of the Republican party in Congress, and wrote the Kentucky resolutions of 1798, which contain the basis of the State Rights doctrines.

In 1809, after he had served as secretary of state under Jefferson, Madison was elected president of the United States. In his second term Madison approved the estabishment of a national bank as a financial necessity. In 1817 he returned to his home at Montpelier, Va., where he served as rector of the University of Virginia.
